

Candidate than Clements.

He thinks, however, that that must be left very much to the locality, and that any attempt at dictation from here might spoil the business.

I understand that Mr. Moses prefers that Clements should run with his support, in order to give him ^{the} claim to the Senatorship. I doubt, however, whether Mr. Moses can bring as many votes with him for Clements as he could get for himself. Either of them, I presume, will be safe to get the vote of the Union party. Savary & Ray have signed the certificate of Killam's death and the writ must issue. I am holding it back as long as possible, but it must go, I fear.

in a day or two.

Hoare & W. Selan are still here and we have come to a very satisfactory arrangement, after a good deal of protolling which you will see in print by and by. We have made an arrangement on this basis.

We assume that the provisions in favour of New Brunswick in the Union Act, are no more than fairly her due. We have calculated then that as New Brunswick came in with a debt of $7,000,000 without interest, in proportion to population Nova Scotia should be allowed to come in at $9,100,000 Canada Currency.

On the same basis.
