50, Notre Dame St. West,

Montreal, January 29, 1928.

The Rt. Honorable Arthur Meighen, M.P.
Chief of the Opposition,
OTTAWA.

My dear Mr. Meighen:

The limited funds allotted to the organization of the Canadian train to France did not allow of a reporting service for the Canadian press as contemplated in the original plans. Hence the rare reference in the Canadian newspapers to the success of this venture.

In view of this, the article published recently by the Boston Evening Transcript acquires greater value. This is the opinion of a disinterested foreign newspaper of undoubted authority. In the interest of our export trade to France, may I ask you to peruse the enclosed article.

With kind regards, believe me

Very sincerely yours,

CPB/AG
