Dear Sir:-

You were kind enough to give us permission to use THE CROSS OF SACRIFICE in a composition book we published some years ago, entitled COMPOSITION THROUGH READING. We are producing for use in the schools of Canada an anthology of prose, under the editorship of Professor W.L. Macdonald, Professor of English in the University of British Columbia, and we should like your kind permission to use this selection again in this book. It is under-stood, of course, that due acknowledgement of your courtesy would be made in the book.

Trusting that you will be able to accede to our request, and looking forward to hearing from you with anticipation,

We remain,

Yours sincerely,

J. M. DENT & SONS (CANADA), Limited.
