Ottawa, February 14, 1917.

Sir,-

With further reference to your letter of the 17th. January, regarding Jack Lute, I beg to say that the Regulations governing Separation Allowance to dependents do not make any provision whereby payment can be made to brothers; consequently it will be impossible to secure this. I would recommend your applying to the nearest office of the Patriotic Fund, as this seems to be a case well worthy of assistance.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
