My dear John:

I met Mr. Lapointe at Three Rivers yesterday, and he told me that he had much enjoyed his talks with you and that you spoke very good French. I am indeed delighted to know that you have made such progress with the French language. It will be of the greatest possible use to you all your life.

Your letter was here on my return to Ottawa last night, and I shall be very glad to tell Mr. Lapointe of the pleasure it was to you to meet and talk with him.

With my best of wishes and much love,

Yours very affectionately,

John Lay, Esq.,
720 Spadina Avenue,
Toronto, Ontario.
