

- Will to war, the, General Keim on,
in Der Tag, 1912, 331-332
- "William's first victory," August, 1914, the German Empress and Princesses and, 292
- Wilson, President, his Message to Congress, quoted, 185-186
- Wolff, Herr Theodor, editor of the Berliner Tageblatt, an honourable journalist, 358
- Wrangel, Field-Marshal, sends calumnious telegrams to King of Prussia against Bismarck, 98
- Wrochem, General, 296
- Z
- Zorn, Prof. Philipp, and the first Hague Conference, 159; sent by Count Münster to Berlin to obtain instructions as to arbitration, 161 ff.; replies to M. Constant in the Neue Zürcher Zeitung, quoted, 169; on "shameful" attack of the Entente Powers, quoted, 170
- Zukunft, the, M. Harden and,
quoted, 393, 394
- Zum Weltvolk hindurch, Herr Paul Rohrbach's pamphlet, quoted, 395, 415