

TO ADVERTISERS.

CHURCH WORK has now reached a circulation of 3000 and offers an admirable medium for advertisers

At its present rate of increase—over 2000 in 12 months—it will reach 5000 by the end of the present year.

It is rushing ahead.

It goes into every province in the Dominion.

It is the only paper of its kind in the Dominion, and practically the only church paper in the Maritime Provinces.

It reaches the best class of people.

The Little Minister.

By J. M. Barrie. There have been so many copies of this book already sold that it does almost seem as if everybody was supplied, but still the demand continues. Its dramatization and production in our principal theatres has added greatly to its popularity. Not to have read this work is to be not properly in touch with the literature of the day. 10c.

In His Steps: What Would Jesus do?

By Rev. Chas. M. Sheldon. This book has met with the most phenomenal sale of any work produced in the English language in many years. Millions have read the work. It has set the whole world talking. Everybody should read it as a matter of curiosity at least if for no better reason. 10c.

THE TRANSVAAL WAR.

Timely books on the subject, and romances on the region in which the struggle is taking place.

Jess, a Tale of the Transvaal.

By H. Rider Haggard. 10c.

The Story of an African Farm.

By Olive Schreiner. This book is an excellent romance and pen-picture of the Boers, by the sister of the present Premier of Cape Colony. 10c.

The Diamond Mine Case.

By Nicholas Carter. A detective story of the Kimberley Diamond Fields. 10c.

With Boer and Britisher in the Transvaal.

By William Murray Graydon. A splendid story for boys. 10c.

The Real Kruger and the Transvaal.

By an Englishman, a Boer and an American. A most timely work, giving a view of the situation from all sides of the case. No exhaustive essays, but just the plain statement of facts that everybody wants to know. A valuable work. 10c.

Tween Snow and Fire.

By Bertram Mitford. A powerful novel, dealing with Englishmen, Boers and Kaffirs; good reading and valuable information combined. 50c.

Yankee Girls in 'Oom Paul's Land.

By Louise Vescelius Sheldon. A graphic and entertaining account of the South African Country as three American girls found it. Especially valuable for its accurate descriptions of manners, customs and topography. 25c.
