JUST PUBLISHED,

AN ENGRAVING FROM A PAINTING BY ALFRED HUNT, OF ENGLAND'S GREATEST APOSTLE. The Rev. John Wesley, M.A. PREACHING ON HIS FATHER'S TOMB-

THE incident engraved is one of greater interest probaby than any in the ifet of the great founder of Methodism; it is laid in Epworth in Laucashire. The many associations of this place with the Wesley fam-ily, mark it as especially suited for the site of a commemorative and historical picture. Samuel Wesley, after leaving South Ormsby in consequence of the affronts offered to him by the Marquis of Normanby, was presented to the Crown Rectory of Epworth, by way of acknowledging the great service he had rendered to the cause of Protestant Christianity, and of the Prince and Princess of Orange. Here he labored for forty years, "attentive to the conduct of a who were under his care, so that every one in his parish became an object of his concern." Here, too, John was born, here he assisted his fa-ther as curate; here the bones of the venerable Samuel were aid down to moulder in the dust; and here, on the evenings of eight successive days, John Wesley himself "not being permitted to preach in the church, stood on his father's tomb and cried alou t othe earnestly attentive congregation, "By grace are ye saved through faith."

One of these last incidents has furnished the artist with his subject. John Wesley was at this time (June 1742) in his 30th year held his interesting conversation on entering the town, and who gave him so comforting a response to his question, "whether there was any in Epworth in earnest to be saved?" To these—"and a vast multitude gathered together from all parts"—he preached; on one evening continuing among them for near three hours, and scarce knowing how to

There is an evi habit sometimes indulged in by boys, in solitude, often growing up with them to manhood; and which, if not reformed in due time, not only begets serious obstacles to matrimonia happiness but gives rise to a series of protracted, insidious, and devastating affections. It destroys the nervous system rapidly, wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper developement of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society,
