Oh, Tell Me.

Oh, tell me, are the sates as blue
In Ireland as of yore?
Do valleys wear that verdant hue
They once -o proudly wore?
Do sephyrs o'er her meadows sigh?—
Can pilgrims' eyes see sti!
The fern leaves on the mountain high
And heather on the hill?

Do rivers run
Thro' forests dun,
Or by each castle boid,
With pattering feet
And cadence sweet,
As in the days of old?

Tell me if yet round towers stand, In silence to proclaim, The glory of an ancient land, The splendour of her fame? Can men still see the rath so green, The abbey, lorn and lone, The holy well, in glen serene, And quaint bruidic stone?

The castle eaves, Where typ leaves bb—crooning in the blast, O'er bright hopes fied, Brave chieftaius dead, nd relics of the past?

Oh, tell me, are the maids as fair
As in the long ago,
With laughing eyes and raven hair
To set one's neart aglow?
Say, have they still it he modest grace
And blushes like the dawn?
The beauty of the classic foce?
The meekness of the fawn?

Or are they true,
Dear land to you,
As they who accorned the frown
And ruthless swords
Of 88xon bordes
By Lim'rick's leagued town.

Oh, tell me, if the night be done
And daylight's on the strand?
And if a summer's lustrous sun
Shines on a risen land?
Have voices from each hill and glen
Taught men to do and dare—
The path to tread, the goal to win,
The glorious crown to wear?

If so, may soon
A cloudless noon
Our aspirations he li;
And men acclaim,
In freedom's name,
The triumph of the Gael.

A SILVER JUBILEE.

A Glad Day for Charlottetown.

The Entire Country Represented-Archbishops, Bishops and Legislators Present—Addresses and Replies.

Charlottetown Herald, Aug. 19. CONTINUED FROM LAST WEEK.

CONTINUED FROM LAST WEEK.

After His Lordship's reply, which was couched in feeling terms, the Bishops of Charlottetown and Chatham, and the visiting prelates and priests, grouped them selves on the stone-tairway leading to the main entrance of the Palace, and were photographed by Mr. Arthur Newbury who, we are glad to say, successed in producing a very excellent negative.

who, we are glad to say, succeeded in producing a very excellent negative.

THE RECEPTION.

His Lordship having signified his intention of holding a reception in the Palace, between the hours of one and two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, was waited upon by a large number of ladies and gentlemen of all denominations, who availed themselves of the opportunity thus afforded of offering him their congratulations, and of being introduced to the visiting prelates.

tions, and of being introduced to the visiting prelates.

The State Drawing Room presented a very brilliant appearance. The rich purple silk of the prelates' robes, the varied toilets of the ladies, and the warm tints of the upholstery, relieved by the sombre cassocks of the priests, combined to render the scene effective in the extreme.

Unon one of the tables we noticed some more, from the Bisnop of St. German de Rimouski.

Life of Jesus Christ, by Louis Veiullot, from the Seminary of St. Hyacinthe.

Life of St. Elizabeth of Hungary, from Canon O'Donnell, cure of St. Denis.

Ice Pitcher, from the Mother General of the Congregation of Nature Denis.

the Congregation of Notre Dame. Golden Candelabra, from the Missions of Silver Missal Stand, from the Children of Mary.

Purse containing $25 in a hundred pieces of silver, from the Congregation of the Holy Family. Solid Silver Rosary and Casket, from the Sodality of St. Joseph.

Purse containing $500, from Catholics of the Diocese.

Purse from the parish of Tignish, con-taining $163. Combination Gold Pen and Pencil, from Senator Haythorne. Rich Missal from Rev. Angus McDonald, and numerous other articles of plate from personal friends of his Lordship. One of the most delicate offerings was an exquisite bouquet composed of the choicest exotics, and holding a dainty satin happenette which the satin bannerette, which conveyed the greetings of the ladies of St. Joseph's Convent.

After the reception at the Palace their Lordships B shops McIntyre and Rogers, together with the visiting prelates and clergy, as well as the other invited guests, repaired, by special train, at 2 30, to St. Dunstan's College. The beautiful grounds of this honored Institution were looking their best. Well trimmed lawns bordered with flowers, and hedged with graceful for After the reception at the Palace their Lordships B shops McIntyre and Rogers, together with the visiting prelates and clergy, as well as the other invited guests, repaired, by special train, at 2 30, to St. Dunstan's College. The beautiful grounds of this honored Institution were looking their best. Well trimmed lawns bordered with flowers, and hedged with graceful firtness, delighted the eye with their quiet beauty, and refreshed the worn soul with their cooling verdure. The guests enjoyed for a short time the pleasure of rambling through the rooms of the College, admiring its fitness as a seat of learning, or the more philosophic enjoyment of sitting beneath the shade of branching chestnut, or waving mountain ash, after the manner of the disciples of Aristotle in the groves around Athens. But classic reflections, and philosophic speculations were all put to flight by the summons to dinner. It is wonderful how easily we descend from the lofty ideal to the grosser real; it is said to note the perfect resignation, not to say joy, with which we relinquish learned discussion or witty repartee, to hasten to the dinner table.

But in the present case this human weakness was excusable, perhaps. The large banquetting hall was artistically decorated with wreaths of evergreens, inter-persed with "delicate sprays of flowers, hannerettes with appropriate mottoes, crowns, coats-of-arms of the host and Dr. Rogers, eventful dates in their lives tastefully woven with flowers and leaves on a white ground, or emblazoned in gold, whilst words of welcome bade all feel that they were giving as well as receiving pleasure. Choice bouquets in vases and silver opergues adorned the tables, and brightened,—almost idealized—the material aspect of the dining-room. In the disposition and arrangement of flowers, and table service, good taste was everywhere observable.

The classic hall was soon resounding with merry jest and joyous conversation. Everyone appeared to be happy and endeavored to contribute to the general amusement. To those who had been students of St. Dunstan's, and very many had been, the scene served to recall passages they had read in Horace in years gone by, in that same hall, and enabled them to sympathize with that rare old diner-out when he cries, "Munc est bibendum; nunc pede libero pulsanda tallus," (Now is the time for quashing the wine juice now the ground should resound with the merry patter of freemen's feet). Pagan or Christian, man is a social being, and thus occasions of social reunion shew man at his best, as well as at his worst. But in the present there was no worst; it was an hour of rational enjoyment. If any envious old Lyous, hearing the merry laughter should chide, and think it wrong, we would answer him as did Horace—insuring juvat!—on such an occasion, and also, "Parcentes ego decteras old," (I hate) who received invitations to the banquet at the strength of the such passage they had read in Horace in years of the such passages they had read in Horace in years of the such passages they had read in Horace in years of the passage they had read in Horace in years or Christian, man is a social being, and thus occasions of social reunion shew man at his best, as well as at his worst. But in the present there was no worst; it was an hour of rational enjoyment. If any envious old Lycus, hearing the merry laughter should chide, and think it wrong, we would answer him as did Horace—insanire juvat!—on such an occasion, and also, "Parcentes ego decteras odi," (I hate a sparing right hand). When the cloth had been removed, the intellectual part of the proceedings began.

of the proceedings began.

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor arose, and in a neat speech congratulated their Lordships the Bishops of Charlottetown and Chatham on attaining the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of their elevation to the Episcopate. After eulogizing Bishop McIntyre's unselfish devotedness to the best interests of his flock, he concluded by proposing the health of their Lordships, which was honored with due enthusiasm.

Prolonged applayes greated Bishop. which was honored with due enthusiasm. Prolonged applause greeted Bishop McIntyre on arising. He expressed his gratitude for the enthusiastic manner in which the toast had been received; and said his pleasure in the celebration of his Silver Jubilee was enhanced by the presence of so many of his former professors and classmates and esteemed friends. There are times, he said, when one is so deeply moved that words fail to express the sentiments of the heart, and for him the present was such an occasion. The works of his episcopate could not, he said, have been successfully carried out were it not for the hearty and generous co-operation of his devoted people, who were ever zealous for the welfare of the Church; to them was due the praise. In conclusion them was due the praise. In conclusion he again gave expression to his deep sense of thankfulness for the honor done him and reciprocated the good wishes of his and reciprocated the good wishes of his guests.

His Lordship Bishop Rogers also acknowledged the toast, and expressed his gratitude to his illustrious host, His Lordship Bishop McIntyre, for kindly inviting him to take part in this joyous celebration. Since his appointment to the Bishopric of Chatham he had, he said, made frequent visits to this Island—visits which were most beneficial to him, and from which he returned with recuperated energy to the warried toilets of the ladies, and the warm tints of the upholstery, relieved by the sombre cassocks of the priests, combined to reader the scene effective in the extreme. Upon one of the tables we noticed some of the handsome gifts that were presented to his Lordship on this auspicious anniversary, viz:

Very rich Crczier, Mitre, Bougeoir, and set of Pontificals, from the Clergy of the Diocese of Charlottetown.

Mahogany Case containing Silver Fruit Knives and Forks, from Archbishop O'Brien, of Halifax.

Memorial of the Third Council of Baltimore, from the Bishop of St. Germain de Rimouski.

Life of Jesus Christ, by Louis Veinlet.

ship's labors during the twenty-five years in which he had ruled the Church in this Province. Reviewing the different edu-cational institutions which His Lordship's Canon O'Donnell, cure of St. Denis.
ce Pitcher, from the Mother General of the Congregation of Notre Dame.
lolden Candelabra, from the Missions of the Congregation of Notre Dame in Prince Edward Island, liver Missal Stand, from the Children of in a great measure, their success in life. Looking around and observing, he said, Looking around and observing, he said, that the various provinces of our Dominion were represented by their ecclesiastical chiefs, he regretted that Newfoundland, represented by their Lordships Doctors Power and McDonald, did not form a part of Canada, but he hoped that the day would come when the ancient Province would link its fortunes with us. Referring to the presence of so many ecclesiastical dignitaries, he remarked that it would give him great pleasure to have them visit our beautiful Island, not every quarter of a century, but every year, so quarter of a century, but every year, so that they might enjoy the delights of our charming summer season.

His Grace the Most Reverend E. A. His Grace the Most Reverend E. A. Taschereau, Archbishop of Quebec, speaking in French, said that it gave him great pleasure to assist at this celebration. Alluding to bygone days when the Epicopal See of Quebec extended not only over the fair land of Canada, but also had health to live to celebrate their Golden Jubilee.

The following is a complete list of those who received invitations to the banquet at St. Dunstan's College:

Most Reverend Dr. O'Brien, Archbishop of Halifax.

Most Reverend Dr. Lynch, Archbishop of Toronto.

Most Reverend Mgr. Taschereau, Archbishop of Ouebec.

Hon. John Baiderston, F. islative Council Hon. John Alex. McD.

House of Assembly Judge Reddin
Judge Alley
John Yeo, M. P. P.
Patrick Blake, M. P. P.
Dr. Gillis, M. P. P.
Dr. Gillis, M. P. P.

Most Reverend Mgr. Taschereau, Archbishop of Quebec.
Right Reverend Dr. Sweeney, Bishop of St. John, N. B.
Right Reverend Dr. Rogers, Bishop of Chatham, N. B.
Right Reverend Mgr. Langevin, Bishop of St. Germain de Rimouski.
Right Reverend Dr. O'Mahoney, Bishop of Eudoxia.
Right Reverend Dr. Cameron, Bishop of Arichat.
Right Reverend Dr. Power, Bishop of St. John's, Newfoundland.
Right Reverend Mgr. Lafleche, Bishop of Three Rivers.
Right Reverend Mgr. Fabre, Bishop of Montreal.
Right Reverend Mgr. Fabre, Bishop of Montreal.

Right Reverend Mgr. Duhamel, Bishop of Ottawa.
Right Reverend Mgr. Racine, Bishop of Sherbrooke.
Right Reverend Mgr. Moreau, Bishop of St. Hyacinthe.

Reverend Mgr. D. Racine, Bishop of Chicoutimi. of Chicontimi. Right Reverend Dr. McDonald, Bishop of Harbor Grace.
Right Reverend Dr. Cleary, Bishop of

Very Reverend Canon O'Donnell, of St. Hyacinthe. Reverend Canon Archambault, of St. Hyacinthe. and Father Macdonell, S.

Albany. Father Tremple, C. SS. R., St. John. Father Nolin, O. M. I., Ottawa College. Fa her Lucasse, O. M. I., Labrador. Father Renaud, C. S. C., Memramcook.

Mr, Rouxel, S. S., Montreal. Bolduc, Quebec Mr. Tanguay, Ottawa. Charles T. Bellemare, Shawenegan. Mr. Allard, Restigouche.
Mr. Aubry, Montreal.
Mr. Biggs, Halifax.
Mr. Berube, Quebec.

Bonneau, Quebec. Dr. Angus Cameron, Sydney, C. P. J. J. Chisholm, Heatherton. Mr. Doulcet, Paris. Mr. Gagnon, Quebec.
E. F. Murphy, Halifax.
Mr. Michaud, St. John, N. B.
Roderick McDonald, Pictou.

L. McDonald, Dalhousie. Mr. Ouellett, Superior Seminary, S Hyacinthe.
Wm. Varrilly, Bathurst Village.
Francis J. McDonald.
Pius McPhee.
Charles N. Boudreault.

Thomas Phelan. James Phelan. Angus McDonald. Dugald McDonald. Donald Francis McDonald. Felix Von Blerk. Patrick Doyle.

William Phelan. R. P. McPhee. James Eneas McDonald. D. J. Gillis, Gregory MacDonald. Allan J. McDonald. Charles MacDonald, Rector of St Dunstan's College.

Stephen T. Phelan. N. C. A. Boudreault. S. Boudreault. E. Walker, D. D. L. J. McDonald. John Chaisson, D. D. Gerard de Finance.

J. C. Onesime Hebert.

M. J. McMillar

G. A. Picotte.
William H. Grant, D. D.
I. Dumont.
A. J. McIntyre.
F. X. Gallant.

John A. McDonald. Alfred E. Burke. Alfred E. Burke.
Henri Theriault.
E. V. P. O'Neill Boyd.
Louis Des Marais, Ecdesiastic.
John McLean, Ecclesiastic.
John McMillan, Ecclesiastic.
J. J. McDonald, Ecclesiastic. Lieutenant Governor MacDonald Hon W. W. Sullivan, Premier and Att

ney General Chief Justice Palmer Ex-Governor Laird, P. C.
Ex-Governor Haviland
Henry M. Keim, United States Consul
Senator Montgomery
Senator Haviland
Senator Howlan
Senator Caval

Dr. Jenkins, M. P. L. H. Davies, M. P. Dr. McIntyre, M. P. A. C. McDonald, M. P. Hon. Donald Ferguson, Provincial Sec retary, &c.

Hon. William Campbell, Commissioner Public Works
Hon. John Lefurgey
Hon. Joseph O. Arsenault
Hon. Neil McLeod

Hon. Stewart Burns Hon. Archibald J. Macdonald Hon. John Balderston, President of Leg

Dr. Gillis, M. P. P.
Henry Longworth, High Sheriff
His Worship Mayor Beer
R. R. FitzGerald, Q. C., Recorder
Frederick Brecken, Q. C.
Malcolm McLeod, Q. C.
E. J. Hodgeon, Q. C.
Donald Montgomery, Sup't. Education.
Professor Caven

Dr. Conroy James Reddin
Thomas Handrahan
Ronald McDonald, Summerside
J. B. Painchaud, Magdalen Islands
Archibald McNeill James W. Mullally

James W. Mullally
James Byrne
Henry Hughes
Patrick McQuaid
Stephen O'Meara, Boston Journal
P. F. Broyderick, Hallfax
Kenneth McDonald, Cape Breton
William C. DeeBrisay.
At 7 o'clock the gueets retired from the banqueting hall, and returned to the city by special train to witness the
TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION AND PYROTECHNIC DISPLAY.

Water Street, up Water Street to Queen of Street, up Queen Street to Richmond Street, down Richmond Street to Way mouth Street, down Weymouth Street to I Water Street, up Water Street to Great I George Street, and entered the garden in front of the Bishop's Palace, where a grand Pyrotechnic display was in progress, under the management of Herr Hermans and Chief Engineer Thornton, of the steamship Carroll. In a glowing cauldron biszed Bengal Fire; now, throwing a ruddy glare over the town, and again dying away in a pale green effulgence, which lent a chaste beauty to the respectable shabbiness of St. Dunstan's; causing many to ask: "Has the Cathedral blazed Bengal Fire; now, throwing a ruddy glare over the town, and again dying away in a pale green effulgence, which lent a chaste beauty to the respectable shabbiness of St. Dunstan's; causing many to ask: "Has the Cathedral been painted!" Gorgeous rockets shot into space, leaving a trail of lights in their wake, squibs the delight of the abiquitous small boys, exploded in all directions; Catherine wheels, Roman candles, and other fireworks whizzed through the air, and kept the sky abisze for two long hours. Indeed, the very heavens seemed to join in the celebration; stars shot to and for in all directions; the sky abisze for two long hours. Indeed, the very heavens seemed to join in the celebration; stars shot to and for in all directions; the fireworks whizzed through the air, and kept the sky abisze for two long hours. Indeed, the very heavens seemed to join in the celebration; stars shot to and for in all directions; the fireworks whizzed through the air, and kept the sky abisze for two long hours. Indeed, the very heavens seemed to join in the celebration; stars shot to and for in all directions to the fireworks whizzed through the air, and kept the sky abisze for two long hours. Indeed, the very heavens seemed to join in the celebration; stars shot to and for the fireworks whizzed through the air, and kept the sky abisze for two long hours. Indeed, the very heavens seemed to join in the celebration; stars shot to and for the control of the church of Fort Augustus could be seen far away on the green upland, the Heather Belle swept round, and steamed slowly back to the city. As she passed the wharves she was courteously saluted by the steamship Carroll. The great basin of the Harbor, as courteously saluted by the steamship Carroll. The great basin of the Harbor and steamed slowly back to the green upland, the Heather Belle swept round, and steamed slowly back to the green upland, the Heather Belle swept augustus could be seen far away on the greeful outline of the church of Fort Augustus could be seen far for two long hours. Indeed, the very heavens seemed to join in the celebration stars shot to and fro in all directions, riv for two long hours. Indeed, the very heavens seemed to join in the celebration; stars shot to and fro in all directions, rivalling the display of the denizens of earth. Upon the steps leading to the main entrance of the Palace were grouped the Bishop of Charlottetown and his distinguished guests. When the procession halted, and lowered their torches in front of the distinguished assemblage, the Bishop of Charlottetown thanked them, in his own pleasing way, for the demonstration they had gotten up in his honor. He was followed by their Lordships of Ottawa, Montreal and St. John, who all spoke flatteringly of the manner in which the celebration of their venerable host's Silver Jubilee had been conducted. His Grace the Archbishop of Hallfax'on being called for, arose and addressed the assemblage, referring in most laudatory terms to called for, arose and addressed the assemblage, referring in most laudatory terms to the highly creditable way in which the day's celebration had been carried out. Loud applause followed the remarks of each prelate. As the hands of the clocks of the city approached the hour of ten, three cheers, proposed by Mr. W. C. DesBrissy, President of the Irish Society, went up from the immesse assemblage for Bishop McIntyre, which were immediately repeated for Bishop Rogers, for Archbishop O'Brien, and for the other visiting prelates and clergy. Then Hon. Mr. Sullivan, Premier, stepped forward and proposed three cheers for Her Majesty the Queen, which were heartily responded to. Along the reste houses of Catholic citizens and of non-Catholics, who wished to show their respect to the Bishop, were brightly illuminated, some in a very artis-tic manner. Conspicuous, however, were the Cathedral, the two Convents of Notre Dame and St. Joseph, St. Patrick's School and the Charlottetown Hospital.

St. Dunstan's was brilliant with white lights; in the large window of the tower fronting on Dorchester Street was a tranfronting on Dorchester Street was a transparency showing the Papal arms. The lancet windows fronting on Great George Street bore transparencies, some displaying the monograms, others the armorial bearings of the Bishops of Charlottetown and Chatham.

The Convent of Notre Dame was a blaze of rich color, its many windows reflecting soft golden and roseate hues. Upon the panes were traced Chalices, Mitres, Croziers and Crosses, with accompanying mottoes, and dates of the birth, ordination and consecration of the two Bishops.

panying mortoes, and consecration of the two ordination and consecration of the two Bishops.

St. Joseph's Convent was much admired. Owing to its irregular outline, the illuminated fringe of Chinese lanterns along its edge had a very fine effect. Emblems wrought in evergreens, flags and many colored lights, gleaming through delicately tinted windows, combined to produce what was generally conceded to be the most beautiful tout memble.

The Charlottetown Hospital displayed in letters of flame, in the five front windows of the upper storey, the word Vivat (May He Live). The Hospital, illuminated throughout in white light, was conspicuous by its brilliancy, but the effect of the blazing capitals in each window was especially good.

St. Patrick's Hall, also in white light, looked very beautiful.

St. Patrick's Hall, also in white light, looked very beautiful.

The Palace, the exterior of which had been decorated by the Committee, was a blaze of rich color. From its cupola floated the Papal Standard, surrounded by flags of different nations; tiny bannerettes fluttered from every available post, interspersed with colored lights; strings of brilliant Chinese lanterns depended from the caves, and were caught up over the main entrance in glowing festoons. In the ornamenting of the Palace and grounds the Committee certainly were most sue-the ornamenting of the Palace and grounds the Committee certainly were most successful; and their good taste produced an effect worthy of this the finest Episcopal residence in Canada.

The arrangements for every feature of the celebration were faultless, and were carried out in a manner reflecting credit on all concerned. Admirable order was observed by the crowds which thronged the streets during the day and evening. Everything considered, the Catholics of Prince Edward Island may well be pleased with the great success which crowned their efforts to celebrate in a fitting manner the Silver Jubilee of their Chief Pastor.

THE EXCURSION.

Wednesday had been filled with stirring events following rapidly each other, and leaving little space for leisure or repose. The Executive Committee would appear to have foreseen this, for the last item on their programme was one well calculated to afford delightful rest to the wearied visitors. wearied visitors. At ten o'clock on Thursday morning, the steamer Heather Harbor Grace.

Right Reverend Dr. Cleary, Bishop of Kingston.

Right Reverend Dr. Carbery, O. P., Bishop of Hamilton.

Right Reverend Mgr. Sears, Prefect Apostolic of Western Newfoundland.

Right Reverend Mgr. Lorrain, Vicar Apostolic of Pontiac.

Very Reverend Mgr. Power, V. G., of Halifax, N. S.

Very Reverend Mgr. Power, V. G., of Laval University.

Very Reverend Canon Langevin, V. G., Diocese of St. Germain de Rimouski.

Very Reverend T. F. Barry, V. G., of Chatham, N. B.

Very Reverend T. F. Barry, V. G., of Chatham, N. B.

Very Reverend T. F. Barry, V. G., of Chatham, N. B.

Very Reverend Dr. Cleary, Bishop of Grace.

Very Reverend T. F. Barry, V. G., of Chatham, N. B.

Very Reverend Dr. Cleary, Bishop of Grace.

Very Reverend T. F. Barry, V. G., of Chatham, N. B.

Very Reverend Dr. Cleary, Bishop of Grace.

Very Reverend T. F. Barry, V. G., of Chatham, N. B.

Very Reverend Dr. Cleary, Bishop of Grace.

Very Reverend Dr. Cleary, Bishop of Grace.

Very Reverend T. F. Barry, V. G., of Chatham, N. B.

Very Reverend Dr. Cleary, Bishop of Grace.

Very Reverend Dr. Cleary, Bishop of Grace.

Very Reverend T. F. Barry, V. G., of Chatham, N. B.

Very Reverend Dr. McDonald, V. G., of Charlottetown.

Very Reverend Canon Carmody, St. Water Street, up Water Street to Queen Street to Relemand Street to Water Street, up Water Street to Relemand Street to Relemand Street to Water Street to Wat up Water Street to Queen acen Street to Richmond Richmond Street to Wey-dawn Waymonth Street, and now in broad belts skirting the cultivated lands, gave a charming diversity to the landscape. Traces of industry and careful cultivation were discernable far and near, as the Heather Bells sped on, and the rich rewards that awaited the farmers in the rewards that awalted the farmers in the abundant crops that everywhere met the eye, gave to the strangers a fair notion of the fertility of our Island soil, and the com-fortable condition of the Island farmer.

rection were all suggestive of music, and less of self-congratulation in the plaudits. Off Point Prim, the Heather Belle, making a wide sweep, ran for the South Shore in order to give the excursionists Shore in order to give the excursionists an opportunity of surveying the beauties of that fertile coast line. At half-past one o'clock the Heather Belle was again at her wharf in Charlottetown; and the excursionists, delighted with their sail, went in a body, at the invitation of His Lordship Bishop McIntyre, to partake of luncheon at the Palace.

ADDRESSES

The following are copies of the Addresses presented to the Bishop of Charlottetown upon the celebration of his Silver Jubilee. To each of them His Lordship replied extempore in feeling language :-

Lordship replied extempore in feeling language:

ADDRESS OF THE CLERGY.

To the Right Rev. Peter McIntyre, D. D.,
Bishop of Charlottetown:

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR LORDSHIP,—We,
the clergy of the Diocese of Charlottetown, beg to offer you our felicitations on the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of your Episcopal consecration.

Twenty-five years have come and gone since the burden of the Episcopacy was laid upon your shoulders, and after the lapse of so many years, amidst the labors and anxieties inseparable from the Episcopal Dignity, we are happy to behold your hale and hearty, fulfilling the duties incident to your high office with unflagging zeal and undiminished vigor.

We look back on the past with fond recollections of intimate and kindly relations; for the present we gladly join with the many distinguished friends of the clergy and laity, who honor the celebration of your Silver Jubilee by their presence, in wishing you length of days and undisturbed tranquility in your journey through life, and to the future we look with firm hope that a kind Providence may long spare you to labor in this porwith firm hope that a kind Providence may long spare you to labor in this por-tion of the Lord's vineyard.

tion of the Lord's vineyard.

We must not forget to include in these remembrances and fond wishes your dear friend and fellow-laborer, the Right Rev. Dr. Rogers, Bishop of Chatham, who received Episcopal consecration with you in this city, and who always manifests a warm interest in the welfare of this Diocess.

Mitres, Pontificals, etc., from the Clergy of the Diocese of Charlottetown, in remem-brance of the Silver Jubilee of your brance of the Silver Jubilee of your Episcopal consecration.

Accept, dear Bishop, the assurance of our high regard.
Signed on behalf of the Clergy,
JAMES McDonald, V. G.
Charlottetown, August 12, 1885,
THE ADDRESS OF THE LAYMEN.
To the Right Rev. Peter McIntyre, D. D.
Eishon of Charlottetoon.

Bishop of Charlottetown. MAY IT PLEASE YOUR LORDSHIP,-This for us is a day of joy and congratulation. We rejoice that you have been preserved through all the arduous duties of the Episthrough all the arduous duties of the Episcopate to celebrate in our midst the twenty fifth anniversary of your elevation to that exacting dignity, and we congratulate you upon having marked that quarter of a century with such works as the great prelates in every age and country have striven to accomplish for the welfare of their flocks.

At a celebration like this we hold to day, it is fitting that we recall the output day, it is fitting that we recall the events which have taken place during Your Lordship's administration of this Diocese; for we would have the world know that the

we would have the world know that the Bishop whom we honor to day has achieved much for the advancement of religion and the well being of his people.

Twenty-five years ago, fifteen priests, scattered at wide intervals over the Island, attended with unceasing toil to the spiritual wants of the people: to day there are thirty-seven clergymen engaged in the same field of labor.

At that time thirty hamble absurbed At that time thirty humble churches.

humbly equipped, accommodated our Catholic population. Most of those homely structures, before whose rude altars many of our forefathers worshipped and sought solace in their hard-hips, have been displaced by more stately edifices, more worthy of the Great Sacrifice and the solemn rites of our religion. solemn rites of our religion. It was, how-ever, reserved for Your Lordship to inaugurate an advancement in church architecurate an advancement in church architec-ture, when you erected in the western portion of our Island that enduring pile which will long remain a monument of your Lordship's zeal and unswerving per-severance. The spirit of labor and sacri-fice infused by you into the parishioners of Tignish has already borne valuable fruit, and now throughout the diocese we see churches springing up, which can justly and now throughout the diocese we see churches springing up, which can justly claim architectural beauty, and boast of artistic decoration. And here, this reflection occurs to us—the parish in which you labored so long as a missionary. which you labored so long as a r which you labored so long as a missionary, owes to your zeal a spacious temple. The parish, also, in which you were born, and spent your boyhood, has received at your hands a like boon. Is it useless for us to cherish the hope that you will be preserved to set a crown upon your labors by erecting in Charlottetown a cathedral worthy of the capital of the

In the shadow of the church rises the school-house. Excellently well has your Lordship carried out this ancient tradition. In conformity with it St. Patrick's School, St. Joseph's Convent, and the Convent of Notre Dame arose in this city. Convent of Notre Dame arose in this city.
St. Dunstan's College owes much to your fostering care, while Convents of the Congregation of Notre Dame have been opened in the more populous centres of the diocese.

While thus zealously providing for the spiritual wants of mental than the contract of the diocese.

spiritual wants of your people, by increasing the number of clergymen and building additional churches, while also you have additional churches, while also you have thrown open so many establishments for the education of the young, you did not forget that the practice of the corporal works of mercy has always distinguished the Episcopal Order. You opened in this city a Hospital wherein all who are stricken with disease can secure the best medical attendance, and have their sufficients alleviated by the gentle services of the medical attendance, and have their sufferings alleviated by the gentle services of the Sisters of Charity.

In all these undertakings, Your Lordship has diligently followed out the traditions of the Episcopacy—traditions old as Christianity itself. The missionary, the Church, the school and the hospital succeed asset other in natural predictions. ceed each other in natural gradation, expanding and multiplying as years pass away. A wooden structure for the education of Huron boys on the bald cliff of Quebec, was the forerunner of Laval, a log cabin on the strand of Siller the river and the woody heights in time into the Hotel Dieu, rude altar which more than two ago the first settlers built on meadow of Montreal, was as th mustard seed, which has develop day into the stately edifice wi over the gorgeous sanctuary Dame. So may it be with your I

There is an event in Your L There is an event in Your I career which we recall with pride it is one which will be remem history, and reflects honor alike name and on the Diocese over wrule. In the great Ecumenical summoned by Pius the Ninth of the control of memory, you were invited to take You shared in the deliberations august assembly, and gave your for the promulgation of the great of Infallibility.

Here, my Lord, we shall draw t

SEPT. 5, 1886.

Here, my Lord, we shall draw to clusion. Indeed, it is to be feared the presence of this illustrious asset of High Ecclesiastical Dignitaries, already said too much. For the f these learned Prelates have command to do you honor on this and day, affords stronger evidence esteem in which you are held the words of ourse can convey.

words of ours can convey.

In conclusion we again offer Lordship the heartfelt congratular your flock, and ask you to accept purse, as a slight token of their purse, as a slight token of their and affection. May you long be prin health and strength to conti-develop still more the works yo begun, and be in the future, if possible, a still greater ornament the have been in the past to your formers. and to your Country.
On behalf of the laity.

A. A. MACDONALI W. W. SULLIVAN, OWEN CONNOLLY, P. BLAKE, HENRY HUGHES, THOMAS HANDRA JOHN CAVEN, JAMES REDDIN,
JAMES BYRNE,
Executive Comn
Charlottetown, August 12th, 188

BENEVOLENT IRISH SOCIETY'S AD
To the Right Rev. Peter McIntyre,
Bishop of Charlottetown.
MAY IT PLEASE YOUR LORDSHIP.

Benevolent Irish Society of Prince E Island gladly avail themselves o opportunity of offering to Your Lottheir hearty congratulations upout their hearty congratulations upout their hearty congratulations as any of your consecration as Bisl Charlottetown.

Charlottetown.

Themselves, a Society of over years' standing, they have witnesse great things which, under the blessi Almighty God, Your Lordship has enabled to accomplish, and they des assure you of the warm feelings of tude which the Irish people of this I cherish to Your Lordship for your stant and unselfish labors for their fare.

Apart from the sacred duties of holy office, Your Lordship's life has largely devoted to the intellectual adv largely devoted to the intellectual adv. ment of our people, by the erection establishment of educational institut wherein our youth are fitted for the to flife. How your efforts in this b have succeeded is well known. The st buildings which adorn our fair Islan so many places are noble monument your zeal and your energy.

With deeds of benevolence your I ship's name has ever been closely ciated, but the crowning work of m was the establishment of a Hospital, wi under the charge of the good Sister Charity, the sick can receive neces care and treatment. This one act, wi by you effaced a foul blot from the C tian character of this community, will tian character of this community, will ever shed a bright lustre upon your I ship's Episcopate.

It is therefore proper that this Soci whose chief object is the relief of dis whose chief object is the relief of dist and the alleviation of human suffer should unite in celebrating the si jubilee of a prelate so widely known justly esteemed, and they fervently I that your Lordship's life may long spared to be a Father to your people a henefactor to the Province. a benefactor to the Province.
WILLIAM C. DESBRISAY,

JOHN HENNESSY Secretary Charlottetown, Aug. 12, 1885.

ADDRESS OF THE CALEDONIAN CLUB To His Lordship, the Right Rev. Peter I Intyre, Bishop of Charlottetown. MAY IT PLEASE YOUR LORDSRIP.—behalf of the Caledonian Club of Pri Edward Island, a society composed men of various Christian denomination united by the common ties of Scott ancestry, we assure Your Lordship that hail with pleasure the joyful occasion of the celebration of your Silver Jubii of the celebration of your Silver Jubil as it affords us a fitting opportunity expressing our respect for one who has happily combined the dignity of a hi and honorable position with the kind ness and culture of the polished gent In your exalted station you have be eminently successful. The many use and ornamental edifices erected un your supervision, attest your taste, sk and ability, and the charitable institute founded by Your Lordship show yo sympathy and care for the poor and aff We are pleased, as Scotchmen, the Your Lordship's career has been such to invariably command the esteem a respect of all classes.

We tender you our sincere congratutions, and hope that Your Lordship in be spared many more years of health a happiness.

happiness. ARCHIBALD MCNEIL, Preside John S. McDonald,
let Vice-Preside
John M. Campbell,
Recording Secreta
John McEachern,
James McIsaac

JAMES MCISAAC, Committe Caledonia Club Rooms, Charlottetow ugust 12th, 1885. DRESS OF THE CATHOLIC LITERARY UNIO the Right Rev. Peter McIntyre, D. I Bishop of Charlottetown.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR LORDSHIP,-