All letters relating to the business of either the Book Room or the WESLEYAN Newspaper Office, and all remittances of money for the WESLEYAN as well as for the Book Room should be addressed to the Book Steward and not to the Editor. But all Books to be noticed, and all communica-tions and advertisements designed for insertion in the Wesleyan, should be addressed to the Editor and not to the Book Steward. INSTRUCTIONS AS TO REMITTING MONEYS:-1.—When sending money for subscribers, say whether old or new, and if new, write out their Post Office address plainly.

2.—See that your remittances are duly acknow-ledged. A delay of one or two weeks may be caused by the business of this office. After that inquire if they do not appear.

3-Post Office Orders are always safe, and not very costly. Next to these, is the security of registering setters. Money sent otherwise is at the risk of the

THE ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF METHODISM.

We are sorry that we are not yet quite prepared to fill the orders which we have already received for this new and superior book. We should have been enabled to do so, more than a week ago, had not the Steamer, advertised to leave New York on the 29th ult., failed to do so. We are authorized to suppose that a supply, sufficiently large to enable us to fill all the orders which we as yet have received, will reach Halifax this week. In the meanwhile we request all our Agents to press their canvass and send in their orders.

We are informed that the Book is a most attractive one and securing an amazingly rapid salethe first edition of five thousand copies having been ordered for Subscribers as soon as it was ready, and a second edition of the same number is just about ready.

Some of our Agents are quite successful in this canvass -we heard last week that one young lady had, in a very few days, obtained thirty or more names on her list of Subscribers. We take this opportunity to request all persons, who have undertaken to act as Agents in our provinces for any of the Subscription Books, for which the Book Steward is General Agent, to hasten to send in their reports and orders, so that the Books required may be obtained and forwarded for distribution as soon as possible.
