Cap. 5.

An Act in further addition to and amendment of an Act made and pass'd in the 33<sup>d</sup> Year of His late Majesty's Reign, Intitled, an Act Relating to the Assize of Bread, and for ascertaining the Standard of Weights and Measures.

Whereas in the Act Relating to the Assize of Bread, and for ascertaining the Standard of Weights and Measures, the Duty of the Clerks of the Market, is not sufficiently provided for, or set forth, nor any penalty affixed to their Neglect of Duty; and whereas also great Frauds are daily practised by Bakers and Sellers of Bread: For Remedy whereof,

E it enacted, by the Commander in Chief, Council, B and Assembly. That the Clerks of the Market in the several Towns or Townships in this Province, where Bread is made and sold, shall visit the Bake-Houses, and the Houses of all and every Person or Persons selling Bread, at least one Day in every week during their Continuance in Office as such, and if they neglect to perform their Duty therein, they shall upon due Conviction at the General Sessions of the Peace, forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings each, to be recovered on Complaint before the said Sessions; which Fine shall be one half to the Poor of the Town or Township to which such Clerk shall belong, and the other half to him or them who shall complain and prosecute for the same.

And be it further enacted, That every Baker or Seller of Bread, shall make his Bread, commonly called white Bread,
