

HERE'S HOT TIP FOR POLITICIANS

Make it Felony for Third-Rate Players to Call Selves "Original"

THE WEEK IN GOTHAM Present Risque French Drama as Showing Home Life in U.S.A.

Canadian Press Correspondent NEW YORK, March 11.—Daniel F. Farrell, a member of the New York State Senate...

Here is a useful hint for the Canadian Senate: A Canadian law making it a felony punishable by ten years imprisonment to present a bunch of third-rate players as an "original New York cast" would probably be welcomed by Canadian theatregoers.

A bright little comedy is "Mr. Pim Passes By," which opened a season at the Garrick this week under the auspices of the Theatre Guild.

The place that Mr. Pim passes by is a residence in Buckinghamshire. In passing by he informed Mrs. Marden, his hostess, that on his way home from Australia he had met a certain miscreant called Redworthy.

Announcement was made this week that Alice Deloria will finish her engagement with "Algar" at the Central Theatre here on April 2.

Another special matinee production which had its opening this week brings to New York for the first time a play which has long been familiar to those acquainted with the works of the French dramatists.

Rev. J. Glover and family are in quarantine with scarlet fever, Mrs. Glover being ill with the disease.

Mr. Percy Morton, of the Royal College of Dental Surgeons, was home for the week-end.

Mr. Edmund Carnahan and friend, Mr. Gummer, of the University of Toronto, spent the week-end at the former's home here.

Mr. W. H. Wrigley, who is fish and game overseer in North Hastings with headquarters at Bancroft, was in town for a couple of days during the past week.

Mr. R. T. Cowell, A.R.C.O. went to Toronto last week and brought his wife and family of four children here to reside.

Still another new theatre was opened this week with still another new play. The theatre is the Klaw, on West 44th street, and the play is "Nice People," a society comedy of satirical vein by Rachel Crothers.

of the modern "yonger set" as familiarized by the modern dramatists and novelists. "Reddie" Gloucester, the heroine, is the most unconventional of an extremely unconventional lot.

What to do with the orchestra has been a problem with which the architects of New York theatres have been wrestling for some time.

It is difficult to see just from which particular direction we may look for that recovery in purchasing power which will enable trade again to circulate freely.

It is felt that it will fall to this country to take a lead in these matters, because we have the knowledge and experience which is not possessed by any other country.

At the root of the troubles of the distressed countries is the inability to meet expenditure out of revenue.

There seems to be no other way short of a general reconstruction after bankruptcy; this would involve enormous loss of capital, followed by a long, painful and dangerous process of recovery.

NEW YORK, March 11.—By Canadian Press)—An exhibition of new paintings by Vincent Taek, who has recently done the interior decorations for a number of public buildings in Winnipeg, concluded on March 10 at the Kraushaar Galleries here.

This artist gives to all of his work the flavor of dramatic interpretation. Such subjects as "Depth and Space" or "Golden Hour" are typical of his thematic material. All of it is invested with a richly imaginative and sometimes symbolic background. It is fairly quick-beat work, but never hurried or out of tune.

It might be well at this juncture to explain that the law against use of certain coloring materials applies to foods such as butter and not to the noses of girls.—The Ottawa Journal.

FAKE CANVASSERS ON TRAINS

ASK AID FOR HOSPITAL HERE; W.C.A. DENY RESPONSIBILITY

The Ontario today received the following letter which clarifies a situation that, according to persistent reports, was very embarrassing. The letter explains itself:

Editor Ontario:— It has come to the notice of the Womens' Christian Association that persons have been canvassing on railway trains for the Belleville General Hospital.

No person has any authority to do this. No canvass is made outside of the city.

The yearly canvass of the city for memberships to the W.C.A. and donations to the Hospital and Home for the Friendless are made by well known ladies of the city, by wards—Blecker and Sampson Wards have been completed for this year and the other wards are practically finished.

Yours Sincerely J. S. Clarke Kinnear, Chairman Ward Collectors, W. C. A.

LONDON, March 14.—After some twenty months' work and a large number of meetings, the Joint Committee appointed to consider whether a working arrangement for amalgamation between the Royal Colonial Institute and the Over-Seas Club and Patriotic League could be devised have with great difficulty been forced to the conclusion that amalgamation is impracticable.

Difficulties in the course of the negotiations, it is satisfactory to be able to state that the negotiations have been harmonious throughout, and that the final decision was unanimously arrived at.

The councils of both Societies feel assured that though amalgamation has not been attained, the Royal Colonial Institute and the Over-Seas Club and Patriotic League will continue to work independently in a spirit of friendly co-operation for the ideal of United Empire which they both have at heart.

ATTEMPT AT CLUB MERGER IN LONDON NOW FAILURE

Made Him Weep; Brought $500,000 To City Hospital

LONDON, March 14.—By Mail)— Sir Squire Bancroft, the famous actor who celebrates his 80th birthday this year, has been giving some reminiscences to the Times. He recalls how he read "A Christian Carol" to a Montreal audience in 1893, for the benefit of the funds of a hospital.

"Do you know you made me cry last night?" "Well that will do you no harm," replied Sir Squire.

"No, and it won't do the hospital any harm," said the Scotsman, taking the actor's hand and pressing it warmly.

Years afterward Sir Squire learned that the Scotsman had left a million dollars to the hospital.

THEY WONDER WHY THEY DO NOT GET JOBS, BUT— Why do some unemployed girls hunt in vain for work?

Some of the women who now handle employment work will tell you, and, in some instances, have told the girls themselves. That is when they have thought the girls would take advice.

Employment heads declare that however much paint and powder girls may use once they have jobs they should not use any when they are hunting them.

"Time after time" says one employer woman, "employers have reminded me that they must have a neat girl. What hope have they for order in their office when an untidy girl applies to them? Appearance often does more for a girl than her qualifications for her work. I feel like posting up the advice of a New York State Employment head: 'One, never seek a job when wearing the triple grade A rouge; and, two, never seek a job wearing large befeathered hats or other clothes which give an overdressed theatrical effect.'"

The iron is run over the surface lightly so as to steam the material.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years

A young mother asked her butcher to weigh the baby. "With pleasure, madam." Then having examined the scales, "thirteen and a half pounds, with the bones."

Smart Footwear For Every Occasion The most fascinating new shoes are here, all ready to be worn with new Spring Clothes.

No Easter costume is complete without new shoes and indeed new shoes have a magic effect on an old costume.

Prices make it possible to have sturdy walking boots or brogues for the street, as well as exquisite slippers and Oxfords for the afternoon frock.

Economy is in favor of a complete shoe wardrobe; it pays in the end.
