There were two breaks from the party lines. Senator Ellis of St. John, Liberal, voted against the amendment, and Senator Montplaisof Quebec, voted for it. The only Senator who was present and did not vote was Hon. Wm. Owens, who was paired with Hon. Robert Jaffray of Toronto. The four newly appointed Senators, Hon. James Masen, Hon. J. J. Donnelly, Hon. E. D. Smith and Hon. Alex. McColl, were all present and voted against the

The Speaker of the Senate then pu the main motion of Senator Loug heed for the second reading, coupled with the Ross amendment. This was declared carfied on the same division and the Senace adjourned.

This is the end of the Naval Bill as far as this session is concerned, unless the government decided to make provision for the building of dreadnoughts in some other way. Senator Cloran declared that the noney provided by the bill would go "the coal barons, iron dukes and rinces of finance in London, We popes, moderators, clergymen, ers, priests and bishops prayadvantage. The lecture by Rev Thos. Voaden, of Cayuga, on "Christianity and the Social Crisis," before the 19th annual meeting of the Theological Union yesterday morning, dealt with socialism, and stirred the ministers to the extent of many "Amens." At its close there was a good natured war of argument on the floor of conference as to whether Victoria College class of '81 or '84 might properly claim him, Mr. Voaden said '83 was "Socialism, industrial strikes, the strife of capital and labor," said the lecturer, "show us that we, have the underlying conditions of a revolution equal to the Reformation that stirred Europe 400 years ago. It remains to be seen whether we shall discern the signs any earlier. We do not mean that anarchy is coming, nor do we mean that atheism is coming. Socialish relates merely to economic que:tions, and has not necessarily any connection for instance with loosening of marriage ties.
