Mr Walter Hanson of Saratoga Springs, N.Y., is this week superintending the storing of ice at the Hanson cottages, Clarendon Lake.

Rev. F. J. Lynch, travelling secretary of Wycliffe College, will conduct the evening service in Christ Church on Sunday next.

Announcement is made of the death of Henry Whaley of Soperton, a well known and highly esteemed resident of that district for many years.

Mrs S. A. Atcheson of Detroit, who has been spending a few days here with her sister, Mrs A. Kendrick, is this week visiting another sister in Kingston.

Harris Hunt, an aged resident of Athens, was found dead in his bed on Tuesday morning at the House of Industry where he had been an inmate for only a few days.

A few of Miss Florence Heffernan's Athens friends gave her a surprise on Friday evening at her home at Charlottetown. They were very pleasantly entertained and all report a good time.

The poorest policy and the worst economy is to keep the children out of school. Every day loss has its manifold effect; the knowledge gained on that day is missed, pupil is thrown behind, becomes discouraged, has a bad effect on the class and the very habit is to be avoided.

The sympathy of her many friends in Athens are with Mrs Sarah Brown in the death of her daughter, Mrs Hilliard Earl of Lyndhurst. Mrs Earl had been seriously ill for several weeks and for a week preceding her demise there was no hope of her recovery. Besides her husband, she is survived by three children, one a babe of about three months.

Rev. R. B. Patterson left this week for his new charge at Stellarton, N.S. His departure was fittingly honored by members of the different churches of his parish. Members at both Trinity and Christ Churches made presentations accompanied with appreciative addresses. On Sunday evening he preached the final sermon of his incumbency here and the church was filled to the doors, many from other churches joining in the service. Mr Patterson has been a recognized power for good in this community and in the report that his parishioners feel at his departure the people of Athens generally share.

The regular monthly meeting of the Delta branch of Women's Institute will be held in the town hall Sat. Jan. 20th, instead of Jan. 13th. All ladies are cordially invited to attend. Mrs R. I. Davison will discuss "Food value of cereals."

The engagement is announced of Miss Hazel Augusta Lloyd, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs D. J. Lloyd, of Gananoque, to Mr A. E. Shook, of Swift Current, Sask. The marriage will take place in Christ Church, Gananoque, on Wednesday evening, Jan 24th, at 8.30 o'clock.

You may set it down as a fact that there isn't a twelve-year old boy in the neighborhood who hasn't his opinion of you and he wouldn't be slow about expressing it either, if a stranger asked him for it. Every man is always making character whether he is doing anything else or not.

This section is slowly emerging from the coldest dip experienced in many years. Friday last was cold and on Saturday morning thermometers on Main street and at the station registered from 34 to 36 degrees below zero. The frost has penetrated many cellars in village and country and considerable loss has been sustained.

We have a few young men who seem to think it makes them manly and noble to make themselves appear tough. If you are tough, people will find it out without any effort on your part. It is just as easy to be a gentleman and hold the respect of the community in which you live. Try it during 1912 and you will never change back.

During the very low temperature of last week Mr F. Blancher moved his sawing outfit from Washburne's to J. S. Rowson's. The engines sent forth a great cloud of steam in passing through the village. When nearing its destination, the front axle of one of the engines broke, and a sleigh had to be substituted for the front wheels.
