THIS IS ONLY FAIR.
Humane Officer Henry Dagneau intends to bring before the county council an important point regarding the by-law respecting the payment of fees to constables. At present when a constable lays an information he gets the service of the summons in addition to being paid 25 cents for each summons served. The humane officer claims that when he investigates a case of assault, and lays an information he should be allowed to serve the subpoenas and should be paid therefor. To change the existing custom will require action by the county council.

PLUNGED INTO AN OPEN DRAW.
Two locomotives and three refrigerator cars attached to the fast eastern freight No. 9 on the Wabash railroad, took a plunge into the River Rouge, near the drawbridge, at the Michigan Carbon Works, in Delray, yesterday morning.
