NOTICE

Military Service Act, 1917.

EMPLOYMENT OF MEN IN DEFAULT UNDER THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT.

The following Regulations, recently approved by the Governor General in Council, impose strict obligations upon every employer TO ASSURE HIMSELF THAT EACH OF HIS EMPLOYEES OF MILITARY AGE AND DESCRIPTION IS IN POSSESSION OF DOCUMENTS PROVING THAT HE IS NOT IN ANY WAY IN DEFAULT UNDER THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT.

An employer who is charged with having a defaulter in his employ must be able to prove THAT THE MILITARY SERVICE PAPERS ISSUED BY THE REGISTRAR OR MILITARY AUTHORITIES TO THE EMPLOYEE IN QUESTION WERE PRODUCED FOR HIS INSPECTION at the time when the employee was taken into his employment, and that it was reasonably established to his satisfaction that the man was not in default under the Military Service Act. It should be clearly understood that the Canadian Registration Certificates given on June 22, 1918, at the time of general registration, in no way define the status of a man under the Military Service Act.

REGULATIONS.

"106. Every person who employs or retains in his service any man who has deserted or is absent without leave from the Canadian Expeditionary Force, or who is in default in the performance of any obligation or requirement for reporting or for military service, imposed upon him by the Act or Regulations, or any proclamation thereunder, shall be guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by a penalty of not less than One Hundred Dollars, and of not more than Five Hundred Dollars, or by both such imprisonment and fine, unless such person prove that he made due inquiry and that the MILITARY SERVICE PAPERS ISSUED BY THE REGISTRAR OR THE MILITARY AUTHORITIES TO THE MAN SO EMPLOYED OR RETAINED IN HIS SERVICE WERE PRODUCED FOR HIS INSPECTION, and that it was reasonably established to his satisfaction by such inquiry and papers that the man was not a deserter or absent from the force without leave, or in default in respect of any of the obligations or requirements aforesaid."

"106A. Every person who HARBOURS OR CONCEALS OR IN ANY WAY ASSISTS ANY MAN WHO IS A DESERTER OR ABSENT WITHOUT LEAVE FROM THE CANADIAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, or who is in default in the performance of any obligation or requirement for reporting or for military service imposed upon him by the Act or Regulations, or any proclamation thereunder, shall be guilty of an offence punishable upon summary conviction by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by a penalty of not less than One Hundred Dollars and of not more than Five Hundred Dollars, or by both such imprisonment and fine, unless such person prove that he was not aware and had no reasonable ground to suspect that the man so harboured, concealed, or assisted was a deserter or absent from the force without leave, or in default in respect of any of the obligations or requirements aforesaid."

MILITARY SERVICE BRANCH.

The Call.

They have given their all to the Nation's cause,
They have hungered and fought and bled, They have proved their worth to the land of truth,
Where rivers were running red, They have maned their gun till the last man fell,
And died that you might live, They have faced the flame of a war's red net,
And you, what did you give?

From the Dardanelles to the fields of France,
And cruises where mark their resting-place
In many a foreign land, They have beaten the foe on every side,
And worried him man for man, They have fought and bled as the British lead,
And died as the British can.

And this is the call that they sent to night,
From their trenches and the sea, We have given our all to win the right,
Will you lend for victory?

It is not much that we ask of you We who have given all,
And we're waiting to see what you will do.

Will you answer with cash our call?
J. P. K. S. Sgt.

Household Hints.

Worth Remembering—When preparing a chicken, try rubbing the inside with a piece of lemon and you will find it very good, as it whitens the flesh and makes it more tender.

To keep a chimney free of soot, occasionally sprinkle a little salt petre over the fire. Teaspoonful is enough.

Always wear buttonholes that have washing a sweater or any other wool garment of where buttonholes are liable to stretch.

Green stains on leather may be removed with benzine. Wash the spots afterwards with beaten white of an egg.

To remove finger marks from white enamel, rub with a moist cloth dip in whiting.

A colored or faded blouse may be bleached white by boiling in cream of tartar solution.

Equal parts of turpentine and ammonia will remove paint.

To restore color taken out by acid use ammonia (oil volatile or barbacorn) drop on the faded spot.

When travelling dip the tops of corked bottles in hot paraffine before packing them and the contents will never spill or leak out.

Use kerosene or gasoline for cleaning purpose only during the daytime and in the open air or in a well venilated room containing no open flame.

Cure for rheumatism: A year or so ago Lord Anson, of London, is said to have paid a physician $1,500 for a recipe for cure for rheumatism, for the sole purpose of making it public.
It was as follows: Sulphur, one ounce; cream of tartar, one ounce; rhubarb, half ounce; gun sal, one dram; honey, 16 ounces. A tablespoon of this is taken at night and morning in a tumblerful of lemonade.

Kerosene oil rubbed on kettles will make them like new.

Put a pinch of salt when beating the whites of eggs.

Remove paint from a window with hot sharp vinegar.

Remove chocolate stains with borax and cold water.

To get cake out of the pan whole also taken from the oven set it in a wet cloth for five minutes.

To remove ink from white goods, soak half an hour in vinegar, wash, soak in solution of chloride of lime, wash.

WOMAN'S NERVES MADE STRONG

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Winnipeg, Minn.—"I suffered for more than a year from nervousness, and was so bad I could not rest at night—
would be awake and get so nervous I would have to get up and walk around in the morning would be all tired out. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's
Vegetable Compound
and thought I would try it. My nervousness soon left me as though well and feel fine in the morning and able to do my work. I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to make weak nerves strong."—Mrs. A. M. SUTHER, 608 Oxford St., Winnipeg, Minn.

How often do we hear the expression "nervous"? "I am so nervous, I cannot sleep." "My nerves are so bad I should fly." Such women should profit by Mrs. Pinkham's experience and give this famous food and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial.

For forty years it has been overcoming such nervous conditions as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pain, backache, diseases, and nervous prostration of women, and is now considered the standard remedy for such ailments.

Sir Thomas White's Appeal to Canadians

Points Out Great Need of the Victory Loan to Carry On the War.

The opening of Canada's great Victory Loan drive the Minister of Finance issued the following message to the People of Canada:

The Victory Loan of 1918 is now being offered for public subscription. It is a loan which will be repaid in full by the Government and can be responsibly resting upon all citizens of Canada to co-operate to the extent of their available resources in making it an unqualified success.

The money to be raised is urgently required to enable us to continue the present of the war, now in its fifth and most crucial year, and for the maintenance of the property of the Dominion in all departments of productive activity.

Apart from patriotic considerations which should alone suffice, it is the direct, immediate, personal interest of every individual Canadian citizen that the Loan should not fail of its purpose. The bonds afford absolute security and yield a most attractive rate of interest. Undoubtedly, in the period succeeding the war, they will show a substantial appreciation in value.

All citizens are earnestly invited to subscribe. Remember, you are asking to give but to lend your money. The small subscriptions from those of slender means are as welcome as the large. In the last Victory Loan we received subscriptions of over four hundred million dollars from over eight hundred thousand subscribers. This year we expect five hundred million dollars from more than a million subscribers.

Let all subscribe to the extent of their means, be they great or small, and once more demonstrate to the world the unity, stability and determination of the Canadian people in this world struggle. Even if the war should end at an earlier date than has been anticipated, all the money asked for will be required for the purchase of Canadian products. The organization and publicity work in connection with the Loan has been completed and many weeks of efforts it now remains for the people of Canada to do their share. That they will do so to the fullest degree, I am entirely confident.

W. T. WHITE,
Ottawa, Oct. 28th, 1918.

CANADIAN ARMY AND THE VICTORY LOAN

War Costing Canada Over Million Dollars a Day—$400,000,000 Will Be This Year's Bill.

Nearly 600,000 have been enrolled in the Canadian Expeditionary Force.
About 425,000 have gone overseas.
Canada's 1918 war bill will be $400,000,000.

Canada's 1917 war bill was $320,- 000,000.

Canada's war expenditure is now $300,000,000 a month.

It exceeds $1,000,000 a day.

The $400,000,000 subscribed to the 1917 Victory Loan will not do much more than pay this year's war bill.

$200,000,000 is needed throughout the Victory Loan, even though peace should come to-morrow.

BANKS WILL LEND

to help out small subscribers to the Victory Loan the banks will lend subscribers, on the probable certainty of repayment within a year, up to 50 per cent. of the amount of the investment in the Loan. The rate of interest charged by the banks is 5 1/2 per cent. Repayment will be made monthly and quarterly. These are much better terms than were granted last year.

There are over 425,000 Canadians overseas who will have to be kept for at least a year, even if peace were to come this month.

No one who looks at the casualty lists can do otherwise than subscribe every dollar possible to the Victory Loan.

The Canadians in France have set a high standard for those at home to reach in the Victory Loan campaign.
Canada must put every ounce of effort into the Victory Loan drive.

Over-subscribing to the Victory Loan would have a wonderful effect on the Canadian flag in France. It would be the best thing that Canada could possibly do.

As the price of news print paper has advanced about twenty per cent in the last two months, and a head-red per cent in two years, subscribers will enjoy a favor by cheerfully reminding their subscribers in advance as promptly as possible. It is impossible to make up the amount of a paper unless a number of subscriptions are received and it is an amount together that make the considerable.

The medium broad high top is popular with every man, because it is a roomy wide-fitting shoe.

Better Value for Your Money

THE size and the resources of the producer have a big effect upon values. A large volume of business reduces the cost per unit of product. Great buying power means the ability to secure materials well in advance, and at lowest prices.

Ames Holden McCready supply the shoe requirements of a large part of the Canadian public. More than 5,000 dealers, in all sections of the country, sell A.H.M. shoes. No other Canadian shoe house has anything like this volume of output.

And in financial resources the company occupies the same dominant position. It is able to place contracts for materials far in advance of actual requirements, and at better prices than would be possible for smaller purchases. These facts are important in normal times; they are doubly important now.

The A.H.M. trade-mark on a shoe is a warranty of value based upon the large output, and greater buying power.

A Tribute.

(New York Herald)
Britain and French and Belgian, Stalwart and strong and fine, Brothers, we would a tribute pay
To you who have held the line!

You fought when the fight was fier-est
You spilled your blood like wine Bleeding and dying and almost gone You fought—but you held the line!
We are coming hundreds of thousands strong We will fight till we reach the Rhine!

But comrades, we know the debt we owe
To you who have held the line!

The Annual Session of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance which was to have been held in Halifax the first week in November, has been postponed until Dec. 2nd, 3rd and 4th.

The Dreaded Message

IT is the women that have suffered most in this terrible war—
"For men must work And women must weep."

There has been the worry and anxiety.
The watching and waiting in constant dread of what might happen.

Because mental suffering is far more distressing and debilitating than physical pain and discomforts women have had the greatest burden to bear.

The strain has been both severe and long, and the result is an alarming increase in diseases of the nerves. Nervous headaches, neuralgic pains, nervous prostration and exhaustion, restlessness, irritability and melancholy.

These are some of the indications of nervous breakdown.

The building up of an exhausted nerve system is often a slow and somewhat to-day process, but with the persistent use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food you can be sure that restoration is both natural and lasting.
