

SUNLIGHT SOAP

Clothes washed by Sunlight Soap are cleaner and whiter than if washed in any other way.

Chemicals in soap may remove the dirt but always injure the fabric. Sunlight Soap will not injure the most delicate lace or the hands that use it, because it is absolutely pure and contains no injurious chemicals.

Sunlight Soap should always be used as directed. No boiling or hard rubbing is necessary. Sunlight Soap is better than other soap, but is best when used in the Sunlight way.

5c Buy it and follow directions. 5c.

$5,000 REWARD will be paid to any person who proves that Sunlight Soap contains any injurious chemicals or any form of adulteration.

AN INFANT'S BATH.

The Way the Baby Should Be Carefully Cleaned Every Day.

An infant should be bathed once a day all over, and the groins and buttocks should be sponged as often as is necessary.

The temperature of an infant's bath should invariably be tested with a bath thermometer. The hand is never a safe judge. One hundred degrees F. is the proper temperature for a tiny baby's bath. When three months old a temperature of 95 degrees is preferable. A bath should never be too hot. The temperature of the room in which baby is to be bathed should be about 70 degrees F., and there should be no drafts.

The infant should be undressed quickly and laid on nurse's or mother's lap on a double bath blanket and sponged all over with a piece of flannel, special care being exercised to get between the folds of skin where secretions are apt to accumulate. After sponging the infant is placed in the bath and the soap quickly washed off. This should not require more than one or two minutes, though the time may be lengthened for the baby to remain in the water as it grows older. After bathing the baby should be dried with a soft towel and quickly and comfortably dressed. After this operation the baby is usually ready for breakfast and then a nap. Infants should be kept out of doors as much as possible in the daytime, and if they are properly clothed there will be less possibility of their taking cold than if they are kept indoors, coddled and raised as hothouse plants.

Plans for Burial of Prefontaine's Body

HALIFAX PROCEEDINGS ARE SIMPLE, BUT THOUSANDS WILL ATTEND IN MONTREAL.

Ottawa, Ont. Jan. 2.—It is said that in connection with the landing of Prefontaine's remains at Halifax the proceedings will be the simplest character. At Montreal, however, the last tribute of respect will be attended by thousands.

From arrangements which are being made by Mayor Laporte, it is likely that the body of the late Hon. Mr. Prefontaine, minister of marine and fish will lie in state at city hall for at least two days.

It is expected the remains will reach the city about the 22nd inst. The plan is the funeral, which will be conducted in part by civic and part by government authorities, will take place from city hall. It is likely that an imposing funeral service will be held at Notre Church. The entire city council will attend the funeral in a body. The government, it is expected, will arrange to have the militia in attendance.

Weak Kidneys.

A change in the weather—the slightest imprudence—and O! what excruciating pain in the back. A cold flies to the weakest spot. And kidneys that take cold easily, prove weakness—perhaps disease. A slight weakness soon becomes a serious disease in such vital organs as the Kidneys. Heed Nature's warning. Make the Kidneys well and strong, so they can perform their proper duties.

CIN PILLS

make the Kidneys well and keep them well. They strengthen weak Kidneys—clean, purify and heal the affected parts—put those important organs in the best possible condition, and effectively cure all Kidney Troubles. Try CIN PILLS. If they don't completely cure you, we authorize your druggist to refund the money. That shows our confidence in CIN PILLS. 50c. per box, 6 boxes for $2.50 at your druggist or THE BOLE DRUG CO., WINNIPEG, MAN.

Why Buy McClure's?

McClure's Magazine is bought and read in homes not because it is a magazine, but because it is the magazine. Why?

FIRST—THE PRICE. It costs but one dollar a year, or less than ten cents a number, for over thirteen hundred two-column pages of reading matter. This amounts in actual bulk to twenty or twenty-five books costing anywhere from a dollar to two dollars a volume.

SECOND—QUALITY. The reading matter is written by America's leading writers—the best about story writers, the best writers on timely articles, the best writers of important serials, such as Schurz's Reminiscences or Baker's Railroad articles.

THIRD—TIMELINESS. The reading matter in McClure's is not only good; it is not only entertaining, amusing, instructive and inspiring—it is also about the subjects in which you and all Americans are most interested at the time. No subjects in the next twelve months are going to be so important as the question of railroad rates and rebates and the question of life insurance. Both of these questions will be discussed by authorities in an impartial, careful, interesting way.

FOURTH—ITS CHARACTER. McClure's Magazine is not edited for children, but at the same time, there is never a line in it that any young girl might not read. Its advertising pages are as clean as its editorial pages.

A Work Of Vengeance.

ITALIAN MURDERED IN NEW YORK. FIVE COUNTRYMEN UNDER ARREST.

New York, Jan. 4.—Guiseppe Riccobono was caught in a little East Side cellar and murdered with a razor. His body was found lying face upward with the blade of a razor broken into two pieces, which were laid on his breast in a sinister and almost perfect cross. His left hand had been half cut off at the wrist and his throat cut.

The police say that a band of Italians killed Riccobono in revenge, not for any harm he had done them, but because he refused to tell them what he knew about the murder recently of an Italian known as Pasquale Bocco. The police arrested on suspicion five Italians.

NINETEEN YEAR OLD GIRL ELOPES WITH AN ITALIAN COUNT WHO IS SIXTY-THREE YEARS OLD

Rome, Jan. 4.—A great sensation has been caused by the elopement of a daughter of Count Lutti of Triviso, 17 years old, with Count Giovanni Corror, who is 63 years old. Both belong to the most ancient of the nobility. Count Lutti reported the elopement to the police, who succeeded in arresting the couple at Venice.

How To Prevent Bilious Attacks.

THE WORST OF A COLD.

Is how it comes. No time to hurry to the drug store, croup develops, the lungs are affected with pneumonia or tubercular pneumonia and it's late. Keep Catarrhoxone on hand,—it kills colds instantly. Something magical about the way it cures Catarrh and bronchitis. Catarrhoxone is the best remedy because it cures in nature's way; it heals, soothes and restores promptly. Carry a Catarrhoxone inhaler in your pocket, use it occasionally and you'll never catch cold—that's worth remembering.

THE GIRL THAT LAUGHS.

Not the Giggler, but the Girl That Laughs and Means It.

Girls spend considerable time trying to find out how to be popular. It is natural that a girl should seek approval and admiration. Her popularity means a good time, boxes of candy, theaters, dances, flowers—everything that the hearts of the young delight in.

The girl that is popular is the girl who laughs—not the girl that giggles and pukes or giggles, but the girl that laughs and means it. The girl that laughs can have candy and flowers and theaters every day in the week.

Men flock about her. They adore her. She laughs herself straight into the hearts of boys and admirers and straight into all the good times that a girl can dream of.

She laughs, but she is careful when she laughs. She laughs with her hands, but never at them. She laughs at what they say when they say it, but never afterward. She laughs at their jokes, but never about them. She never laughs at any one's blunders or misfortunes.

Women forget to worry when they hear the cheerful girl's laugh. Old men are warmed at the sound of it. Young men listen and follow it, pay court to it, marry it, for it is the laugh that keeps the heart young, the laugh that keeps the face bright.—Kansas City World.

A FAMILY CREST.

Procure One at Once if You Want to Be in the Swim.

Any man or woman who pretends to be anything in society now sports a family crest. One may or may not have had forbears, but the crest is no longer an insignia of blue blood. It can be secured for a price, and as the American usually carries any fad to excess he now outcries the titled families of the old world.

He has it stamped on his cigarette paper as well as his stationery. His wife has it woven into her table linen. The head of his stable orders it in metal on the harness as well as in the lacquer on the carriage door. It stares at the general public from his lap robe. His son has it stamped on his seal ring, and his daughter, if she takes up the craze for tattooing, has it indelibly marked on her anatomy. But the crowning inconsistency of the modern use of a crest is the distribution of dinner favors bearing the crest not of the recipient, but of the hostess.

A man of millions who recently refurnished his library had the crest hammered into the brass frieze of the fireplace, and a wholly unbecoming pair of animals copied from this same crest furnished the supports for the andirons. Little Master Millions is sent forth to his daily walk with the family crest embroidered on his sleeve, where the child of the common people has some small navy or army design on his $4.98 reefer. Crests on handkerchiefs are by no means uncommon, and here the work is done in the most exquisite of convent embroidery. My lady's writing desk is equipped with brass or copper furnishings hammered in the pattern of her crest.

Entire sets of tableware, including gold and silver plate and the most beautiful of glazed china, are done to order that their owner may exploit the family crest. Just at present there seems absolutely no limit to the methods for fashioning one's crests on less fortunate fellow men.

One well known bachelor who is extremely proud of his crest has a novel pipe rack. The background is a whole calf skin, in the center of which is burned his crest, and this is surrounded by pipe racks holding smoking equipment from every corner of the globe.

He who has not a family crest or the price thereof may employ a substitute if he happens to be in college. Here an insignia of his chosen fraternity takes the place of his family crest, adorning the furnishings of his room, his stationery and his cigarette paper, to say nothing of his jewelry.
