Old Sourkrout soon perceived that the Yankee had tricked him, and he must either be salen, or lose his five dollars. He chose the latter alternative; the money was paid to the Yankee, who left with high honors, having vindicated the fame of Yankeedom, and sustained its high reputation for the production of wooden naturage and Yankee Tricks. The old Dutchman has learned to respect the superior sagacity of Yankee pedlers and from that day, since, has always treated them with due deference, gand never fails to look remarkably silly, if anybod says anything about "sating raw Dutchmen" in his presence.

Beff, and intrees, but this medicine is not only a palliative but a cure for alcorated lungs. It contains no deleterious Drugs and one trial will prove its astonishing efficacy better than any assertions or extincates in curing consumption and all diseases of the Lungs, such as Spilling, of blood, Coughs, pain in the side and chest, night-secals, kee.

About 1000 certificates of almost miraculous cures, performed by this medicine, from some of the first Doctors, Clergymen and Merchants, have been sent us for this medicine, but the publication of them looks too much like Queckery, [we will show them to any person, calling at our office.] This medicine will speak for itself and enough in its own favour wherever it is tried.
