HAW, HAW!

"Do you believe in transmigration of souls?" asked the Little Man.

"Sure," replied the Big Man. "Why?"

"Nothing," replied the Little Man.

"But it says here that there are birds in Africa with bills a yard long."

"Well, what about them?" demanded the Big Man.

"I was just wondering if those birds are not the spirits of departed plumbers," replied the Little Man.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Time Enough.

"You know, old man, I was going to ask you to dinner with me tonight but I just heard Smith remark that you were going to eat with him."

"Oh—what time do you eat?"

"Six o'clock."

"Well, that's all right, old boy, Smith doesn't eat till seven."—Judge.

Beyond His Limits.

Ben Said—What's the matter with Ben All, the whirling dervish? He's all tied up in a knot.

The Lightning Pioneer.

If old Ben Franklin in his day had paused to loiter and to laugh and only worked eight hours a day we would have had no telegraph.

Hay Days.

"Do you make a wish when you see a load of hay?" asked the superstitious girl.

"Not if it's my hay," replied Farmer Cornstossel. "With hay at present prices a man with a load of it doesn't have to wish. He's already got his."

Not a Chance.

Miss Leftover—Aren't you afraid to marry on so short an acquaintance? You know they say, "Marry in haste, repent at leisure."

Miss Hurrayon—Dear thing, when I marry my husband won't have any leisure in which to repent.

The Big Consideration.

"You have taken a lofty position in this momentous matter."

"I have," replied Senator Sorghum. "And I feel a little like an aviator. I can't stay in the air forever. The big consideration is how I'm going to alight."

Blessings of Imagination.

Main Question.

"The young man seems to admire you, girlie."

"He says if he had me he'd never want another thing on earth."

"But will he hustle for the things you want?"

WHERE THE FAULT LAY.

Hubby—Isn't your skirt outrageously short?

Wifey—No, indeed, it is just that the floor doesn't come up any higher.

Sky Traffic.

When in our airship through the crowd we journey fast or slow we'll find a cherub on a cloud to signal "Stop" and "Go."

The Needy Ones.

"Do you think the motion picture stars will form a union?"

"Why should they? It would be more suitable if their employers organized."—Film Fun.

Opportunities.

"Ours is a country with opportunities for all. Even in Boston you don't have to operate a book store."

"Eh?"

"You can run a beanyery."

Cruel Interruption.

Miss Oldgirl—The first lover I had was when I was twenty and—

Miss Pert—What a splendid memory you must have to go so far back as all that!

De Valera Can Not be Found by Secretary

New York, Dec. 23—Eamon De Valera, "president of the Irish Republic," has caused his secretary considerable embarrassment by failing to come out of "seclusion," the latter asserted here today.

De Valera, who, several weeks ago disappeared "for a rest," and who it was announced would resume his speaking tour in the West the day after Christmas, was to have met Harry Boland, his secretary, yesterday upon Boland's return from Massachusetts with Mrs. Muriel MacSwiney, widow of the late Lord Mayor of Cork, at Worcester, on the way to New York. Boland said he expected to converse with the "President" upon arrival here.

Today the secretary said he had not seen De Valera and could not say anything concerning his whereabouts.

"I cannot give you any tip at all," he replied when he asked if he would hint as to which side of the Atlantic the "Irish president" might be expected to reappear next. Last night Boland denied cabled reports that the "president of the Irish Republic" was en route to Ireland or England.
