GENTLAMEN,—Last November my child stuck a nail in his knee causing inflamation so severe that I was advised to take him to Montreal and have the limb amputated to save his life.

A neighbor advised us to try MIN-ARD'S LINIMENT, which we did, and within three days my child was all right, and I feel so grateful that I send you this testimonial, that my experience may be of benefit to others.

(St. Leo the Great, Sermon ii., On the Anniversary of His Electice.) In pursuance of this object we have endeavored to direct all that we have attempted and persistently carried out during a long pontificate towards two chief ends: in the first place, towards the restoration, both in rulers and peoples, of the principles of the Christion life in civil and domestic society, since there is no true life for men, except from Christ; and, secondly, to promote the reunion of those who have fallen away from the Catholic Church either by a to one and the same God. St. Angustine commenting upon this of the Church, so is the Holy Ghost; the conception of the Holy Spirit, and only was the conception of Christ aecomplished, but also the sanctification of His soul, which, in Holy Scripture is called His "an ointing" (Acts x., 28.)
