STAR Ceylon Tea is as indispensable as our daily bread. Its name and fame are household words throughout the island and beyond of Newfoundland. Its STAR for breakfast, dinner and supper, for social 5 o'clock and every other time. Its dominating influence is alone due to its distinctive and mysterious character which at once stamps it as the true idea of TEA QUALITY.

Inspector Thanks

Capt. Woolcombe and the Bluejackets. Editor Evening Telegram: Sir—Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to publicly thank Captain Woolcombe of H. M. S. Brilliant for his kindly and prompt offer of assistance on the occasion of the fire at the Chinese Laundry, which occurred last evening. Capt. Woolcombe with several of his Officers and many of his Bluejackets was quickly at the scene of the fire and tendered to me their assistance as above stated. Our men, however, had the fire under control at this time. I may add that a quite a number of Liberty men from the Brilliant, and although on shore leave, rushed to the scene of the fire, where they believed duty called them, and rendered yeoman service to the regular fire-fighters in every possible manner. These men I wish to thank specially. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, in anticipation for space, I am, very truly yours, JOHN SULLIVAN, Inspector-General, Constabulary, Inspector-General's Office, St. John's, June 3rd, 1911.

His Excellency and the Coronation Parade.

St. John's, June 3rd, 1911. Editor Evening Telegram: Dear Sir,—I enclose herewith a further communication from His Excellency the Governor relating to the Coronation Parade, with his request for publication of same. The letter was received by us yesterday evening, too late to deal with today. A reply, however, is under consideration, a copy of which I shall be pleased to hand you in due course. Yours truly, CHAS. H. HUTCHINGS, Major M. G. B. Government House, St. John's, Newfoundland, June 2nd, 1911. Dear Sir,—The Governor asks me to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of this day's date in reply to his circular letter addressed to the Commanding Officers of Brigades, dated the 17th of May. His Excellency notes that your Brigade finds itself unable to comply with the views of the other three Brigades of the Colony in respect to the question of order. With regard to the last paragraph but three of your letter you would appear to be under a slight misapprehension. Far from any desire to exclude your Brigade the general wish, His Excellency is sure, is that you should take part in it. It is for you to say whether you will do so. The Governor thinks it right to point out that the abandonment of the parade by the Church Lads' Brigade was in his opinion an impossibility, no matter how much they might desire to meet your views, inasmuch as the Patron of the Church Lads' organization is His Majesty the King. The arrangements so far include the Royal Navy, the Church Lads' Brigade, the Catholic Cadets, the Newfoundland Highlanders, all of whom have signified their intention of turning out in the order named. You will readily see that it is out of the question that any dispute should occur on the parade ground, and the Governor still hopes that your Brigade will take its place next after the Catholic Cadets at the Review in honour of His Majesty. I have the honour to be, Sir, Your obedient servant, (Sgd.) T. C. FITZHERBERT, Private Secretary, Major C. H. Hutchings, Methodist Guards.

THE MONGOLIAN HERE. The Mongolian, Capt. Peters, arrived here from Philadelphia at 7 a.m. yesterday after a run of 42 days. She had dense fog to Cape Spear. She brought over 400 tons cargo. Wildman, Miss Stowe and Mr. Ryland.

THE MONGOLIAN HERE. At noon to-day a Royal Salute of 21 guns was fired simultaneously from H.M.S. Brilliant and from Fort Townsend. The bells of the towers of the R.C. Cathedral sent over the city a resonant peal. While the salute was being fired from the ship the marines drew up a deck present ed arms. The whole city was ablaze with bunting as well as the Cabot Tower and the ships in the harbor were dressed out with flags. Bowing broad the interior of their stores dressed with the national colors for the celebration. The Banks and Government offices were closed.

MIRAND'S LINIMENT CURES DAN-DRUFF.

Newfoundland Naval Contingent.

Twenty reservists of the Calypso leave by the Mongolian to-night for the Coronation. Their names: To do so, however, necessitates not only extreme care and attention but also entails a large expenditure. Any one interested in either Belvidere or Mt. Carmel Cemeteries must certainly appreciate with undigested pride the gradual wonderful improvements that have taken place during the last decade: the well-kept walks so clean and tidy; the plots rendered beautiful by the profusion of flowers and shading trees; the Mortuary Chapel, modest in design exteriorly, their interior embellished with all the requisites for such a sanctified place; in fact everything appears well for those in charge. But still to furnish and keep in order such large areas must cost no little amount. I therefore trust that the collection for the cemetery to be taken up at all the masses on Sunday next will be an unprecident one, and that everyone will give their mite great or small towards defraying the cost of keeping these hallowed resting places of our dear departed ones. Yours truly, ONE INTERESTED.

God's Acre.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir,—To care and embellish "God's Acre" has ever been one of the chief works of Christianity. To do so, however, necessitates not only extreme care and attention but also entails a large expenditure. Any one interested in either Belvidere or Mt. Carmel Cemeteries must certainly appreciate with undigested pride the gradual wonderful improvements that have taken place during the last decade: the well-kept walks so clean and tidy; the plots rendered beautiful by the profusion of flowers and shading trees; the Mortuary Chapel, modest in design exteriorly, their interior embellished with all the requisites for such a sanctified place; in fact everything appears well for those in charge. "Cascarets" Splendid for Elderly Folks.

The rate for old people is—One Cascaret daily. The bowels, like other muscles, grow less active with age.—They need help. Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles. So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at sixty. Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. And there is no matter of choice here. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box.

The Mongolian Here.

The Mongolian, Capt. Peters, arrived here from Philadelphia at 7 a.m. yesterday after a run of 42 days. She had dense fog to Cape Spear. She brought over 400 tons cargo. No Sectarianism in This

The members of the Masons and Bricklayers' Union are doing great work at the Mount Cabot. Two different crews, composed of Protestant and Catholic alike, have been at work the last two evenings. The roof is now up to the eaves, and the members of the Union have intimated their intention to the Christian Brothers not only to finish the roof, but also to finish off any other work in their line about the building that still remains to be done. It is a pity that political or sectarian differences should ever be allowed to mar the harmony of the community, which time and again has proved that it can make as one man in any deserving cause. The Slattery Memorial is a conspicuous example of this trait of our people. Men of all denominations composed the original committee, and men of all denominations are now completing it, unasked and unsolicited, for the Christian Brothers and orphan children. Such purely Christian work must have a beneficial effect, not only on those principally interested, but also on the community at large. It is really an excellent lesson in pure Christianity.—Com.

of repairing daily the wear and waste caused by physical and mental activity. It is principally a matter of proper food. When this process is going on normally, a person is pretty sure to keep well. Grape-Nuts FOOD A Unique Boat. Mr. Azariah Parmlter, ship's carpenter, Gilbert Street, during his leisure hours the past winter built a neat little boat which he can carry under his arm. It is only six feet long, but being built on the lines of an ordinary four-oared fishing boat, is quite strong and capable of carrying one person with safety in smooth water. Mr. Parmlter went across the harbor in her yesterday. She is on exhibition at Knowling's upper wharf.

Fire Last Night

Destroys Chinese Laundry and Private Residence.

At 8.45 last evening a fire broke out in the Chinese Laundry, on Gower Street, occupied by John Lee but owned by Charley Fong. Lee's laundry occupied the lower flat with a shop in front and a drying and washing room in the rear, and Mrs. Miller and her family occupy the two flats overhead. The fire was a spectacular one, as a few moments after the outbreak the whole building was enveloped in flames which illuminated the harbor. Friday it was the Chinese' busy night, and several hundreds of dollars worth of laundry was being handled on the premises. Mr. Fred. Udle turned in the alarm from Box 17, and in a couple of minutes the Eastern and Central firemen with hose reels, ladders, and other apparatus were on the scene, and in an incredibly short space of time they had four powerful streams of water playing on the burning fabric over which the flames were shooting high in the air. They saved some of the clothes, but the rest were early on the scene, and the men fought the flames with considerable skill and daring. A strong force of police were present under Superintendent Grimes and kept the course of citizens present to the sidewalk opposite. Ladders were run up at the front of the building, and the men running up these forced an entrance to the flats occupied by Mrs. Miller and flooded the blaze out there after a hard fight. The Reserve firemen were also quickly on the scene and did excellent work. There was a good supply of water. Some Chinamen were in the laundry in the drying room when the outbreak occurred. They gave the Telegram reporter who followed them, containing accounts of how the blaze originated. Messrs. J. Vasey, tailor, and J. J. Brown were in the building at the time, and the latter thinks that clothing hanging over the stove in the drying room ignited and caused the blaze. In a couple of minutes it communicated with the clothes hanging in the laundry there, clothing, etc., burst into flames, and just as the alarm bells rang out the fire spread to a gasoline tank in the rear of the building, and a loud explosion followed sending glass flying across the street with the shutters on the windows, and sending sheets of flame from the opposite houses. Two or three men narrowly escaped being cut with the flying glass and had to retreat from the tongues of fire which were darting across the street. Gunners Mates, Gibson and Wilson, of H. M. S. Brilliant, were in Mrs. Miller's house when suddenly the apartment was filled with smoke, and she instantly fire burst up through the floors. Two children, a boy aged 6, and a girl aged 3, slept on the upper flat. The boy ran upstairs and the children over to Mr. Vasey's, opposite just in the nick of time. Had they not acted so promptly their escape must have been cut off. They were hurriedly taken to the hospital and the hall and stairway through which they had come were a roaring mass of flame. Citizens helped willingly and removed furniture of Mr. C. Norbury, Mr. Chapin and Jas. Baird. Baird's and Chapin's house is badly damaged by smoke and water. The Chinese Laundry and the adjoining woman is ruined as she carried not a cent of insurance. Only a few days ago she had installed several pieces of new furniture, and she reckons her loss at least $400. The fire was quickly observed on board H. M. S. Brilliant and Capt. Woolcombe sent out a squad. Soon one hundred of these were at the King's Wharf, and in command of Capt. Woolcombe and Lieut. Pritchard. The contingent proceeded to the scene at double quick and on arrival there Capt. Woolcombe tendered the services of his men to the firemen, and they were thanked for their cordiality for the offer. The naval men who had fire appearance with them remained on the scene for a while, but the crowd of marines were given different positions on the street where they stood with rifle and bayonet acting as sentries and keeping order in the crowd. The men also brought a fire engine, and this was kept at the King's jetty to be available at a moment's notice should any other work be required by the naval authorities, was highly praised by citizens generally.
