St. Andrews Club Rooms.

The Club Rooms of the Nfld. St Andrew's Society, which occupy all one flat of the new addition of the Smallwood Bldg. will be ready for occupancy within a few weeks and when finished will be second to none in the city. They command an excellent view of the harbor, as well as the principal parts of the city. The rooms are separated from one another by folding doos, which makes it possible to throw them all into one when required for special occasions. Particulars of the official opening will be announced later.

As the cold season is coming you will need an Overcoat for your little boy. We have them made specially warm and cosy. We keep the good woolly article, because we know that shoddy cloth neither gives warmth nor wear. We have these little Boys' Coats in all sizes and prices. Remember if you want the good article, go to Jackman's.
