Important Announcement.

I have much pleasure in announcing that on and after Monday next, September the 6th, Mr. P. J. McCarthy, the well known vocalist, pianist and musician, will be at my shop every morning from 11 to 1.30, and every afternoon from 3 to 6, to try over new and standard music for intending purchasers.

As I import practically all the music that is published in the musical centres of the United States, the stock will contain all the most up-to-date publications in fox-trots, one-steps, waltzes, jazz music and popular songs. Added to this I will keep a full line of standard vocal and instrumental music, also the celebrated Century and McKinley editions, with teaching pieces a specialty.

Teachers and pupils will no longer have any trouble in selecting, as Mr. McCarthy will be there to recommend, illustrate and help them. Our outport customers will appreciate this service, as orders will be carefully selected and promptly attended
