GO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION, INC.

GENERAL OFFICES, UTICA, N.Y., U.S.A.

It had to be the "milk land" of the Union. Iowa could raise corn. Main had her potatoes. Georgia says "cotton," and Texas spells "cattle." But New York's soil, rainfall, seasons, and climate generally made it the "Dairy State."

There are approximately 70,000 picked farmers in the New York State territory who belong to the Dairymen's League Co-operative Association, Inc., farmers who have clean, regularly inspected barns and clean, healthy cows. They are the Dairymen's League. Instead of 70,000 ideas regarding the production and distribution of milk and dairy products, they decided to have a single standard of purity and quality—the highest that human endeavor could make. When they put their collective name on anything, it is

So you can buy Dairymen's League Evaporated or Condensed Milk knowing that it is rich, "creamy milk," that it is pure and good and comes from the "dairy

It is good to-day. It will be good to-morrow and next year, for the life-work of these 70,000 farmers is to see that the dairy products of the Dairymen's League are kept up to the standard that has been set.
