MORE THAN ZEAL NEEDED. The Montreal Gazette (Tory), which is edited and controlled by the M. P. for Cardwell, pays its respects to the "Equal Rights" agitators in these words: "Equal Rights" agitators in three works.

The Equal Rights organization may be as zealous as it is mistaken—in its conduct as well as in regard to facis—but zeal cannot create a movement when the material for its absent.

That is so. Take, for example, the Tory movement to replace Hon. Oliver Mowat. Hon. G. W. Ross, Hon. A. S. Hardy, Hor C. F. Fraser, Hon. A. M. Ross, Hon. Charles Drury and Hon. J. M. Gibson, with Messrs. W. R. Meredith, Sol White, H. H. Clarke, David Creighton, Richard Tooley, E. Clarke and Richard Tooley, E. Clarke and Mr. Clancy. We all remember the cries raised against the Mowat Government in 1886, and how the men who raised them cries kept laughing in their sleeves so long as they thought they were gulling the people into the belief that there was foundation for the allegations. The Tory bosses then left no stone unturned to secure the defeat of Mr. Mowat, but we know how the people refused to believe the cock-and-bull stories concocted by Mr. Birmingham and the other hired emissaries of the Tory managers. They allowed Mr. Meredith to continue a tail to the Rite of the Ottawa bosses, permitted Mr. White to attend to his annexationist propaganda at Windsor, and consented to David Creighton assum ing the post of holder of the hat while subscriptions are taken up to keep going the hired journalistic apologist of Tory misdeeds. Though told by the electorate that they were not wanted, the would-be Ministers once more bob up, but not serenely, with their programme of long-since exploded charges, hopeful that if they only keep at it long enough the people will begin to believe them. But the case of the Tory anagers of Ontario is fitly described by the Montreal Tory organ when it takes the ground that "zeal cannot create a movement when the material for it is absent." That is the condition of Mr. Meredith and his associates to a knock-down. They know it, and we believe the coming developments in the Legislature will further demonstrate the poverty of their plea to be permitted to

following dispatch from Ottawa: following dispatch from Ottawa:

There is great rejoicing in the camp of those who are advocating closer trade and political relations with the United States. Sol White, the out-and-out annexationist, has been elected on that ticket Mayor of the old Conservative town of Windsor, Ont. This is the first signal victory and by many is believed to be the beginning of the end as regards the ultimate political destiry of Canada. Sol White is ranked among the ablest lawyers in the Dominion. Until recently he was a strong Conservative and sat in the Ontario Legislature. He was a trusted and confidential party worker for both Meredith and Sir John Macdonald, and the latter is down hearted at learning that one of this henchmen has been the first to appeal to the people of Canada on the platform of political union, with the United States and the people of Canada on the platform of political union with the United States and constraint of the whole North American continent.

has been left to the Hungarian workmen brought into Pennsylvania by the protections of Canada depends not upon British connection, but upon political union with the United States. The former, he contends, is a standing menace against the development of the country, He holds that nature never intended there should be a customs line between Canada and the United States, and that one form of government should control the affairs of the whole North American continent.

affairs of the whole North American continent.

The question of political union with the neighboring republic has now been made a live issue in Canada, and, encouraged by the success Mr. White has met with, many adherents will be found supporting the movement who have been up to the present moment restrained from announcing their views feelings of delicacy of standing alone. Mr. White has been a support of the present moment restrained from announcing their views feelings of delicacy of standing alone. Mr. White has been a support of the present properties of the present and will run for the Domition Parliament of the works since the Tory press of Canada was even weeks since the Tory press of Canada was the works since the Tory press of Canada was entire that a poundkeeper could not be elected in the United States if all the votes indorsing the United States if all the votes indorsing the views throughout the country were centered in one constituency.

We believe it is true that Mr. Solomon White has been elected Mayor of Windsor

White has been elected Mayor of Windsor by acclamation. It is also true that he has been "a trusted and confidential party worker for both Meredith and Sir John Macdonald," and for some time past an avowed annexationist. We do not believe, however, that he is a great man or a great lawyer; and although it oes not require a

plies as follows:

Suppose the leader of her Majesty's loyal Opposition in the Legislative Assembly had identified himself, his party and his political programmer with Mr. Sol. White, M. F.P., and publicly signified absolute unity of sentiment with that learned gentleman by taking him around the whole circuit of the Province as his licutement and aiter eyo. The sentiment will be a his succession of the province of the views of the party of Opposition or near planform in the cities and towns of Ontario the views of the party of Opposition or near planform in the cities and towns of Ontario for annexation and delivered to the world his manifes o against British connection, water was not the leader of Her Majesty's loyal Opposition bound to purpe himself and his and colored party from the suspicion of complicity by an early and unambiguous pronouncement of dis privatil bullet's, it, you have been consulted' on this perticular case ere now. Would you kindly favor the public with the legal opinion you have given as to the Conservative leader's responsibility? Has he been so "disingentious" as to evade a direct answer! And if so, why so? Do, sir, speak out this time.

The reply is well put, and upon his own conception of duty Mr. Meredith ought ong ago to have been heard. In view of the peat relations between Mr. Meredith and Mr. White one would hardly have thought that so important a pronouncemen on the subject of annexation would have been uttered by Mr. White without the approval of Mr. Meredith; or, if it had been ttered without that approval, it would have been permitted to remain before the public without at least some effort on Mr. Meredith's part to modify, if not to with-draw it. Dear Mr. Meredith, you had better speak now.

reation of Q. C's by the Government of Ontario, it is plain that Premier Mowat means to let it be understood that he be lieves he has law on his side, and that Sir John Macdonald is a usurper in this matter, as he has tried to be in regard to many other rights of the Provinces. After giving the list of Q. C's, the Gazette proclamation irects "that the said barristers do take precedence in the courts of Ontario, as between themselves, in accordance with the dates of their being respectively called to the Bar, but next after her Majesty's counsel learned in the law for the Province of Ontario appointed by his Honor the Lieuten-ant-Governor on the 13th day of March, ant-Governor on the 15th day of March, 1876." This provision is made, doubtless, in accordance with the 92nd section of the British North America Act, which stipulates that "the Legislature

This is probably the biggest offer ever made for a series of lectures in this country. It would take some wonderful calculation to figure out a profit for any manager who makes such a generous offer as that. Henry M. Stanley is doubtless the greatest attraction for the platform in the world to-day, but $1,000 a lecture is gilt-edged even for him. A New York manager has offered Henry that there is no better available aman of very great ability to sit in the President's chair at Washington, Mr. Solomon White is hardly likely to be carried away by an ambition to succeed Mr. Benjamin Harrison. He might be a great man in Chicago or even in Washington, but in Ontario he has not yet risen to the level of a fifth-rate man or lawyer. Nevertheless he has been a trusted and confidential worker for Mr. Meredith and Sir John Macdonald, At the last Ontario election he stumped the country in company with Mr. Meredith, and was paraded by that gertleman as a coming Minister. He is still believed to be faithful to Mr. Meredith and Sir John Macdonald, and should he run for a seat in the Dominion Parliament it will doubtless be as Sir John's candidate. At all events he has not been repudisted up to the present time, either by Sir John or Mr. Meredith.
