AT SELINO. London, March 3 .- Some confusion has arisen in the minds of those who are watching the Cretan situation as to the exact condition of affairs at Selino. This is a coast town, on the south side of the island, 35 miles west of Sphakia. The dispatches from Canea have several times referred to Selino as being out of reach of the warships, but it seems that it is not the town itself that is besieged by the Christians, but a fort some distance from it, containing Ottoman soldiers and civilians. The Canea correspondent of the Daily News says that the beleaguered position is four hours march inland. It is reported by the Governor of Selino that a massacre at Candamo is imminent. PLEASES THE PORTE. London, March 3 .- The Times has a dispatch from Constantinople, saying that in addition to announcing the decision regarding Crete, the powers in-formed the Porte that Greece has been notified to withdraw her forces from the island. A dispatch from Athens confirms the opinion that Greece will respect the demands of the powers. The dispatch adds that it is earned from an authentic source that the Sultan is cyrically satisfied in regard to the decision as to Crete. He recognizes that he will lose the island, but is heartily glad to be rid of the trouble of protecting the Mohammedan minority there. He receives news of the happenings in the island, such as the bombardment by the foreign warships, with scarcely concealed deis stated that when he was gat. took his seat. Lord Salisbury said he regretted that Mr. Bayard's term of office had ended. His official connection with him had induced the deep conviction that both countries owed him a great debt for his love of peace and complete hatred of war. He referred to Mr. Bayard's remarks about the impulses of the American and British peoples being soured or perverted. Lord Salis-bury said that the danger did not lie in official circles. If the unofficial people were kept in order, the official people would never make war. At the present time organized government had distinctly lost force, and public opinion had gained power. Therefore It was increasingly important that public opinion should be rightly guid-ed. It was in shaping the tone that the advance of the world lay.
