lis Leniency Is Condemned in Some Quarters.

Death of the Boer Commandant De Villiers-Buller Enthusiastically Received at Cape Town

London, Oct. 25 .- The war office announces today that Lord Roberts hopes o leave South Africa for home about Nov. 15, and that Gen. Lord Wolseley | people. as consented to continue to perform the duties of commander-in-chief of the army until the end of November. The revival of guerilla warfare in South Africa, says the New York Tribune's London correspondent, has lighted up English sentiment, especilly in smart society, which is divided into military cliques and factions. Lord Roberts' lengiency is condemned by impatient partisans as a source of weakness in South Africa, and the opinion is expressed that a general as cold-blooded as Kitchener is needed to suppress the lawlessness now in pro-

BULLER TALKS. Cape Town, Oct. 25 .- The town counil entertained Gen. Buller at luncheon yesterday. In replying to a toast in his honor, Gen. Buller said that when he arrived here at the outbreak of the war, he found the same spirit of determination to uphold the flag and deend its rights pervading the colonists as he found when he was last here, twenty years ago. There was no doubt that if in 1878 Sir Bartle Frere had dollars more customs taxation would been supported in the policy he had been dispatched from England to carry brough, much misery would have been prevented in South Africa. Fortunately Sir Alfred Milner had been sup-ported. He was sure that the specacles through which South African affairs were now looked upon by those n power in England were considerably better than they were twenty years ago. From that he deduced that the sacrifices made and the misery endur-ed by the people of South Africa had been in vain. Henceforth South Africa would be a prosperous country Enormous, enthusiastic crowds witnessed the presentation of addresses to Gen. Buller in the afternoon. In replying, Gen. Buller said he had felt extreme pleasure in commanding troops who had been trained by him. He paid high tribute to the devotion, loyalty and bravery of the soldiers, especially mentioning the South African Light Horse. He said that after the war it. Horse. He said that after the war it was supposed that there would be per-manent peace, when all the people manent peace, when all the people would be alike under one flag, all joining in the creation of one common country.
