LIFE OF ST. FRANCIS.

At the First Presbyterian Church, as a portion of a general series, the pastor has on the last two Sabbath evenings presented to his people the It was found that many of the paslife of St. Francis of Assissi, as leading saint in the Roman Catholic frozen. Europe at the end of the twelfth and the beginning of the thirteenth cenwas briefly sketched, and also the life of the gay young son of the wealthy cloth merchant, Bernardone, in the little town of Assissi, in Central Italy. His disappointments with the pleasures the world could offer, and the way in which at last he turned himself resolutely from them and devoted himself to the "Lady Poverty" then the story of the marvelous im-pression that all too brief but selfforgetting life had not only upon the world at large, robbers and other evil men, but also upon the great Roman Church, which at that time was the supreme in the civilized world, under the wise and stern rule of Pope Innocent III. The rules of the order, its rapid increase in numbers strength, their ministrations to lepers and all diseased and suffering ones, the beautiful relations existing between Francis and Santa Clara, the stigmata, the wonderful joy that Francis had in contemplation of the Creator's works, as shown in his "Canticle to the Sun," his love of birds, and his glad welcoming of "Sister Death" ere he had attained the age of 45, were all touched upon. The preacher summed up the story of this marvelous life by saying that while we might not be able to accept certain legends that cluster around the story of the Mie of Francis, yet this we must accept, that we have in the tale positive evidence that in this devout son of the Roman Cath-Church, who held himself obedient to the commands of his ecclesias tical superiors, there was a man whose whole life was filled with the spirit of Ohrist himself, and one who must assuredly be with him in his glory.

Juror Creates a Sensation by Fainting in Court.

The sittings of the winter assizes for the county of Middlesex reopened at 11 o'clock Monday, before Mr. Justice Robertson, after the adjournment for Sunday. The hearing of the suit of Miss Mary Winterbottom against the police commissioners, for injuries sustained by being run over by the police patrol wagon on May 16 of last year, was

After the conclusion of the evidence, Mr. Meredith renewed his application for non-suit. Counsel agreed to put in argument in writing or to argue the case in Toronto on a date to be agreed upon.

Court adjourned at 12:30 and resumed at 2 p.m. Counsel addressed the jury, the judge delivered his charge, submitting several questions to the jury, and the latter then retired. Shortly after the opening of the court in the morning, the judge's remarks of last week as to the lack of ventilation in the court house received striking confirmation. One of the jurors, David H. McCallum, was suddenly overcome by the foulness of the air, fell back in a faint and had to be carried from the room. It was many minutes before he was able to resume his place in the jury box. The judge expressed himself as inclined to secure another and more sanitary place for the holding of the court. The incident created considerable excitement in the court room.

Awful Result of the Blizzard in Russia Eighteen Thousand Troops Engaged in Releasing Snowbound Passengers.

London, Jan. 14.-The Odessa correspondent of the Daily Mail sends a heart-rending story of the sufferings of railway passengers snow-bound while on the way to Odessa. The blizzard raged continuously for more than 100 hours over the whole of Southern Russio. # INAUGURAL MEETING.

Time in New Century.

Committees Struck and Chairmen Chosen in Short Order.

Mayor Rumball's Opening Address-Official Majority Against Bylaw to Abolish Hospital Trust-Appaintments Made.

At 11 o'clock yesterday the city council for 1901 met in the council chamber of the city hall, Mayor Rumball occupied the chief magistrate's chair, and the aldermen who took their places were Ald. Cronyn, Beattie, few minor questions, and P. C. John Greenlees, Campbell, Parnell, Winnett, Olmsted, Cooper, Garratt, Stevely, Gerry and Johly.

> The business transacted was of the usual nature, the meeting occupied about the same time as others and a crowd of the usual size occupied the seats without the ralling.

> INAUGURAL PRAYER. Mayor Rumball asked Rev. Smith, paster of the First Methodist Church, to open the proceedings with prayer. Dr. Smith prayed fervently for the divine blessing on municipal interests and that wisdom might be granted to his worship the mayor and to the members of the council in their consideration of the city's business. Upon the conclusion of the inaugur al prayer, Ald, Beattie, seconded by Ald. Winnett, moved that the thanks of the council be extended to Dr. Smith for his kindness in opening with prayer this first council meeting of the new year and the new century. In presenting the council's thanks to Dr. Smith, Mayor Rumball said that he hoped that he and other ministers of the city would not confine themselves to the inaugural prayer, but would continue their prayers for the council during the year. THE MAYOR'S ADDRESS. Gentlemen of the Council,-I congratulate you upon the expression of approval you have received from your fellow-electors. And I assure you it is a privilege I esteem very highly to be in a position to extend-as I do this morning-a cordial welcome to each of you to the council board for 1901. Permit me to suggest that in arriving at conclusions upon the many questions Jolly. that will be laid before you, the utmost consideration for honest differences of care and efficiency, may characterize your transaction of business. It is customary at inaugural meetings of the council for the mayor to call the attention of the members to such questions as in his judgment may come before them for consideration. I therefore respectfully ask that your attention may be given to the following suggestions: 1. During the year 1900 about eighteen miles of cement sidewalks were laid. In my opinion, this is an excessive amount. The city's proportion of cost of laying so many miles unreasonably enlarges the amount to be levied by that this year a very much less number of miles be laid. 2. I am advised that the cedar block navements laid on Talbot street and King street, and also upon Prospect avenue, have been paid for in full, and that this will be the last year for payment of rates upon all the other pave-ments of this kind that have been laid in the city. It will be necessary for you to carefully consider in what manner these several streets may be kept in repair, and the material that should be used on repaying them, if the latter is general rate, and I would recommend asked for or deemed desirable. 3. The construction of our new sew-erage system having been at length completed, the question of sewage disposal still remains for consideration. Committee No. 2 of last year's council had plans and specifications prepared for the construction of filtration beds. These plans and specifications will be laid before you, and your careful consideration of same is requested.

4. During the year 1900 the city engineer was given complete control of his department, and held responsible for the expenditure of the appropriation for streets and sidewalks. The experience of the committee under whose supervision these moneys were expended, as well as of the council and citizens generally, in regard to this departure, has been so satisfactory that I feel warranted in recommending the continuance of the same system during

5. During the year 1900 application was made by the lessees of the London and Port Stanley Railway for an extension of the time and a rearrangement of certain of the terms of their lease, so as to enable them to negotiate the consolidation of their debt to greater advantage. This application is still before the L. and P. S. R. board, and the result, of their deliberations thereon will no doubt be laid before you for approv-Having these matters in view, I would urge upon you the desirability of appointing as members of the board only gentlemen who are known to be of the highest ability and integrity. 6. The reduction in the number of aldermen to twelve and their election by general vote, instead of by wards. is a departure from former methods so unique as to merit more notice than I have time or opportunity now to give it. So far as the election procedure under the new law is concerned quite unanimous opinion of the electorate, I think, is that it has worked satisfactorily. Certain changes in the act may be necessary and I would recommend the proper committee to consider and report upon these, that they may be asked for in due time. 7. In my opnion it is important that everything in our power should be done to encourage manufacturers to locate here, as the growth and prosperity of our city depends largely upon the development of our manufacturing industries. In relation to this matter it is my opinion that the unrestricted interchange of cars between the several roads is a consideration of the greatest importance, and I would recommend that committee No. 1 or, it you desire, a special committee be appointed to act with the committee named by the board of trade to urge upon the railway authorities the desirability and importance of this matter.

8. During the year 1900 the last year 40 doses. Sold by C. McCallum & Co .- lives in the South African war in defense of their country's honor and the integrity of the empire were several young men, former residents of this city, and it has occurred to me that it would be eminently fitting and proper during the first year of the twentieth century to prepare for the erection in Victoria Park of a suitable monument to commemorate their valor and patriotism. I would suggest that an amount be placed in the estimates to City Council Meets for First aid in this matter, that a committee be appointed to arrange for same, and that contributions be received until a sum has been obtained sufficient to pay for the erection of a first-class memorial.

9. I trust that in the consideration of all the business that will come before you, you will keep in view the necessity of such economy as is commensurate with the public welfare. In lawing these few converges in the public welfare. laying these few suggestions before you. I do so with the sincere wish that not the municipal corporation alone, but each member of its council as well, may enjoy a prosperous and happy new year.

F. G. RUMBALL, Upon motion of Ald. Parnell and Winnett, the mayor's inaugural speech was received, will be printed in the minutes, and the various matters mentioned in it sent to the committees. A number of communications were sent to committee.

HOSPITAL BYLAW. The scrutineers of the hospital bylaw reported an official count, making the majority against it 1,939. The figures were 511 for and 2,450 against. RECEPTION COMMITTEE'S RE-

The reception committee was given power to consider a report of the old reception committee that a certain number of names be added to the list of those soldiers to receive watches. The names mentioned were Jeffrey, Ingamells, J. C. Hill, A. E. Munro, Sippi, Duff, Barratt, Pinel.

Ald. Garratt moved that the name of Pte. Lefroy, of Masonville, be add-

Ald. Parnell objected. Where, he asked, was this thing going to end? The tax rate was high enough already. A halt must be called somewhere. The county council was as well able as the city council, perhaps better able, to provide for their own men.

The mayor explained that it was the intention to give the watches only to those who had lived and worked in the city.

The reception committee were given power to add the names it deemed proper. STRIKING COMMITTEES.

Ald. Greenlees moved, seconded by Ald. Parnell, that the five aldermen who had received the highest vote in the city be a striking committee to name the standing committees for 1901. These were Ald. Cronyn, Beat-tie, Greenlees, Parnell and Winnett. They retired and the council adjourn ed for five minutes. The report was as follows:

No. 1-Beattie, Cronyn, Greenlees and Cooper.
No. 2—Winnett, Parnell, Campbell and Olmsted. No. 3-Garratt, Stevely, Gerry and

Ald. Garratt moved in amendment that the committees be as follows: No. 1, Cronyn, Greenlees, Beattie and opinion will prevail, and that the Jolly; No. 2, Winnett, Parnell, Gargreatest dispatch, commensurate with ratt and Campbell; No. 3, Stevely, Cooper, Olmsted and Gerry. He had no seconder.

Ald. Cooper moved that his name be placed on No. 2 instead of Ald. Campbell. No seconder.

CHAIRMEN.

Within a minute or so the committees reported that the following chairmen had been chosen: No. 1, Ald. NEW YORK Greenlees; No. 2, Ald. Winnett; No. 3, men had been chosen: No. 1. Ald. Greenwees, Ald. Stevely. MOTIONS.

The first motion plassed was a resolution of condolence with the family of the late D. C. Macdonald, a former mayor of the city. Ald. Parnell moved that No. 1 committee consider a rearrangement of the city hall staff so as to give City Clerk Kingston more assistance. Ald. Campbell moved that to No. 3 committee and himself be referred the consideration of a plumbing by-

He moved that No. 2 committee report to the council such specific measures as are necessary for the cleanliness of the city, and for the collection and removal of garbage.

Another of Dr. Campbell's motions to the effect that a special committee take steps to obtain amendments to the municipal act, to more closely define the municipal elections was not pressed, as the matter was referred to committee through the mayor's inaugural address Ald. Parnell moved that the mem bers of No. 3 committee and the mover be a committee to interview the boards having financial dealings with the city, with a view to obtaining the lowest rate possible. He moved also that these boards submit to the council before March 1. their estimates for 1901.

IMPORTANT APPOINTMENTS. Mr. George F. Jewell and Mr. Andrew Dale were reappointed auditors for the PUBLIC LIBRARY BOARD. The names of Henry Macklin, Talbot Macbeth and Robert Angus were mentioned as representatives of the council on the Public Library board. The latter dropped out after the first vote. On the second, the vote was a tie, broken by the mayor, who voted for Mr.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES. As successors to Mrs. Boomer and E. J. MacRobert. Collegiate Institute trustees, the following were mentioned: P. Birtwistle, J. H. McMechan, W. T. Strong, John Macpherson and J. M. He moved in amendment that it consist of the following aldermen: Gerry, Jolly, Greenlees, Cronyn, Cooper, Parnell, Garratt, Beattie, Stevely and the mayor. Ald. Cooper warmly supported this. In his opinion the gentlemen who desired official honors should get them by way of the people's vote. He said that he would challenge the outsiders' votes should they be elected, and he was sure that they could not legally vote. When yeas and nays were called only

Marriage of Alfred G. Vanderbilt ACCEPTABLE AGREEMENT to Miss Elsie French, Former Playmate of the Groom-A Giance at the Ladies' Gowns.

Newport, R. I., Jan. 14.-Although in the depth of winter this well-known watering-place today took on a semblance of its summer gaiety, because of the wedding of Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, probably the most wealthy of the third generation of the Vanderbilt family, to Miss Elsie French, a charming Newport girl, former playmate of the groom, and the daughter of Mrs. Frederick Orme French, a resident of the city for many years. The ceremony which united the heiress of millions and still greater wealth took place at noon, in the Xabriskie Memorial Church of St. John the Evangelist. The church was decorated with gorgeous lavishness; the assembly, which only half-filled the edifice, made up in splendor and combined wealth what it lacked in numbers; the service was as ornate as the highest forms of the Episcopal Church could make it; the wedding procession, a picture of loveliness and fine gowns, and the breakfast-which closed the formal proceedings of the day—was one of the most elaborate ever served in this city. THE CEREMONY.

An organ concert occupied the hour preceding the ceremony. Then as the tones of the Lohengrin March filled the church, the two clergymen, Rev. George F. Beatty, rector of the church, and Rev. G. Brinley Morgan, rector of Christ Church at Haven, entered from the side door, followed by the bridegroom and his brother, Reginald Vanderbilt, the best man. At the same time, the bridal procession started up the main aisle. the ushers leading, followed by the four bridesmaids. Eight personal friends of the bridegroom acted as ushers. Each wore the conventional frock coat, with lavender tie and pearl pin, the last being the gift of the bridegroom. Miss French presented her bridesmaid friends with white card-cases, on each of which was a raised monogram in gold. The bridesmaids were Miss Pauline French, the bride's niece; Miss Elsa Bronson, Miss Isabel C. Stillman, and Miss Edith Gray.

THE DRESSES. The bridesmaid gowns were of pearl gray crepe de chene, combined with liberty gauze of the same color. Their hats were also of gray, elaborately frilled with a knot of gold in front. Each carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, sister of the bridegroom, wore a similar gown, although more modest in detail. Some distance behind walked the bride, leaning on the arm of her brother, Amos Tuck French.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN The bride's gown, although of great white satin, the skirt having a train more than three yards in length. The close-fitting sleeves of satin were finished witht deep cuffs of exquisite lace. The high collar of the corsage was also of lace. The bottom of the skirt around the long train was trimmed with tulle, and sprays of orange blossoms. The bridal veil.entirely covering the gown and falling to the end of the train, was a magnificent piece of Brussels point lact, and was the same veil worn by her sister when she married General Eaton in England ten years The bride carried a bouquet of white orchids, and lilies of the valley. At the altar Mr. Vanderbilt met his bride. Together they stood before the steps of the chancel until Dr. Morgan had finished reading the betrothal portion of the service, when they ascended to the chancel, and at the altar Dr. Beattie completed the ceremony and pronounced them husband and wife.

Reached by Representatives of the foronto Employing Printers and Their Men.

Toronto, Jan. 14.-The conference between the representatives of the Employing Printers' Association and those of the various unions of the printing trade was practically concluded on Saturday, a settlement accepitable to both parties being reached. This is regarded as an important precedent in the way of settling or preventing labor difficulties.

The visiting labor representatives were banqueted Saturday night at St. George's Hall by the Allied Printing Trades of Toronto. There was a large and enthusiastic gathering. Mr. Freel, the president of the International Stereotypers' Union, paid a high compliment to the employers' conference committee, which comprised Rev. Dr. Briggs, Mr. Atwell Fleming, and Mr. A. F. Rutter. He said they were three of the most democratic men he had ever met. Canada, he declared, seemed to be free from the aristocracy of wealth which was a feature of the

YOUNG LIBERALS

To Meet in Convention at Toronto-Clubs of the Province To Be Recognized.

Toronto Jan. 14 .- The Ontario Federation of Liberal Clubs, which in the campaign of 1895-96 took an exceedingly active part, has again become active, and a convention will probably be held in Toronto at an early date, at which steps will be taken for reorganizing the province and reviving many Young Liberal Clubs that have become inactive.

A special meeting of the executive committee of the federation will be held on Friday, at the office of the Ontario Liberal Association, Victoria street, Toronto, at 11 a.m., to arrange for the holding of a convention.
