STAMPED OUT SMALLPOX.

Toronto, Feb. 18.—Dr. Bryce was in a more cheerful mood today as a result of fewer smallpox outbreaks than usual being reported. He has received reports which say the disease has been stamped out in Cornwall, Hawkesbury, London, W. Wawanoosh, Kinloss, Eydenham township and Carleton Place. Two new cases of smallpox were reported from Brockville.

TO SAVE THE PIGEONS.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 18.—The later anti-pigeon shooting bill was passed this morning by the senate by a vote of 31 to 6, without further argument. The bill will now go to the assembly, and Senator Slater said that he believed that it will pass within a week, and will be signed by the governor.

The end of these gun tournaments, where 20,000 poor doves or pigeons are shot in a day, is in sight," said Senator Slater. "I am gratified that the vote in the senate was so large."

The United States Senate ratified the Danish treaty without amendment in any particular.

WELSHMEN FOR CANADA

Colonial Office Asked to Aid Transportation.

Miss Stone's Ransom Was Paid Ten Days Ago.

Report in London That Canada Will Lay a Cable to Britain Independent of Present Lines.

WELSHMEN FOR CANADA.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—An influential Welsh delegation will visit the colonial office today for the purpose of asking Mr. Chamberlain to provide transport to carry a large number of Welshmen from Patagonia to Canada.

Mr. William N. Griffith, Canadian agent at Cardiff, and Mr. W. J. Rees from Swansea, who visited Patagonia, head the delegation. Sir John Llewellyn will entertain the delegation at luncheon after the official interview.

About 1,500 of these Welsh settlers occupy 70,000 acres, divided into 350 farms, where no produce can be grown without irrigation, and where recurring floods have proved disastrous. Transplanting this agricultural colony to Canada is advocated strenuously by the Welsh delegation.

CANADA MAY LAY A CABLE.

The Telegraph says it understands that Canada has definitely decided to lay a cable to Great Britain, independent of existing Atlantic lines, and also a Pacific cable. She would probably accept federal aid for the imperial government, but will lay the cables anyhow.

SANTOS-DUMONT ILL.

In consequence of his immersion in the waters of the Monaco Bay on Friday, Santos-Dumont is seriously ill at the residence of the Duc de Dino.

RANSOM PAID TWELVE DAYS AGO.

The Daily Graphic's special correspondents state that the ransom of Sir Stone and Madame Tsilka was paid on Feb. 6, S. Guarjulo, a dragoman of the United States legation and Mr. Peet, secretary in Constantinople of the American Missionary Society, met the brigands on the road to Podmore Monastery and handed over the money in bank notes. The release of the captives now depends upon the honor of the brigands.

Mr. Guarjulo is waiting here, continuing the correspondent, and is ignorant as to where Miss Stone, the captive American missionary and her companion, Mme. Tsilka, are concealed.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

The officials at Marcon's office in London say their Lizard station was in communication with the Kron Prinz Wilhelm, which is bearing Prince Henry of Prussia and his suite to New York, up to 9 a.m. yesterday, when the steamer was about 140 miles west of the Lizard.

A powerful Marconi station at Mullion, Cornwall, was continuing to dispatch wireless telegrams towards the Kron Prinz Wilhelm, but the limit of the distance covered by the Marconi system is the Atlantic, as she was not equipped with an apparatus powerful enough for her to reach.

STRIKE SETTLED.

At Trieste, Austria-Hungary, the strikers here resumed work yesterday, their demands having been conceded.

LABOR TROUBLES ELSEWHERE.

The strike situation at Barcelona is becoming more grave. A state of siege has been proclaimed. The strikers have tied up all the newspapers, and none of them is appearing. It is estimated that 40,000 men have struck at Barcelona, and serious rioting is reported there. The mob attempted to sack the market buildings, and stopped all street traffic. The factories and shops in the city have been closed. Groups of women, bearing banners, are taking a prominent part in the disturbance. Several battalions of troops are clearing the streets.

A dispatch from Rome says that at a great meeting of laborers held there it was decided to submit the question of a general strike to the vote of the Italian labor unions. After the adjournment of the meeting there were several clashes with the troops, and the strikers were charged, clearing the streets. During the rioting at Barcelona the troops fired on the mob, killing one person and wounding 24.

The next day Emily alone was summoned. Before being introduced she was dressed in Oriental gauzes by the same two English shrews, who complimented her on the fact that the Shah had taken a great fancy to her.

At the second interview the shah tried to express his fondness for Emily, and she warmly and vigorously objected. When she finally broke down and cried, the shah's anger was mollified, and he ordered that she be taken to his apartment, after sending her a considerable message, accompanied with valuable presents.

Thereafter she saw the shah almost daily, being his favorite entertainer. She says she learned to like the shah well except when a tender fit seized him.

Finally the shah grew up because of the girl's steadfast refusal to become a member of the royal harem, and she, following the advice of a French physician, ran away from the palace. She hid in Tehran three days, and then the physician's servant took her, disguised and veiled like an Oriental woman, to Tabreez, where she lived secretly with kind French nuns.

Four months ago Emily married a French merchant, rich, handsome, and a Catholic convert. But the shah's emissaries finally locating her, she escaped, finding the country unsafe.

The young couple joined a Russian caravan, reached the Black Sea, and sailed from Batoum for Marseilles aboard a Greek vessel, which stopped at Trebizond.

There Emily's husband went ashore, saying he would take such a short stroll. He never returned, and his wife does not know whether he was murdered or had deserted her. Being afraid to risk herself alone in a strange city, she continued her voyage, and finally reached Paris.

She tells the correspondent for the Chronicle she has most of her husband's wealth—jewels, quite a cargo of precious rugs, and more than $100,000 in money.

She left today for Berlin to join some American relatives.

Miss Sadie Krumling, aged 20, wife of Dr. Fred C. Krumling, a prominent physician of Blissfield, Mich., shot and killed herself on Monday during a fit of temporary insanity, caused by the death of her 3-months-old baby. The baby was killed by falling from a chair.
