SOME PERSONS are more susceptible to colds than others, contracting derangements of the pulmonary organs from the slightest causes. These should always have at hand a bottle of Bickel's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, the present day sovereign remedy for coughs, catarrh and inflammation of the lungs. It will effect a cure, no matter how severe the cold may be. You cannot afford to be without a remedy like Bickel's for it is the best.

A CHILDREN'S DAY.
A number of the principals of the city schools, held a meeting in City Clerk Baker's office yesterday afternoon and discussed the part the school children should take in the semi-centennial celebration in August. The proposal to have a children's day met with favor, and a special committee, consisting of Messrs. Liddell, Appleton, and McQueen, was named to consider ways and means for the holding of the day. This committee will report back some evening next week.
WOMEN'S MUSIC CLUB.
At yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Women's Music Club, the following programme was given:
Romance, by Mrs. M. Saunders..... Grieg
Miss Muriel Saunders and Mrs. Robb
Memoria..... Lynnes
Irish Love Song..... Lang
Miss Minnie Fox..... Chopin
Fantasie Impromptu..... Chopin
Love Song..... Beach
Miss Elizabeth Walker..... Mendelssohn
Concert, Minor Andante..... Mendelssohn
Miss Maud Rogan and Miss Raymond.
MOVING TO LONDON.
The Times, of Brockville, has the following: "The combined forces of the George Street Epworth League and the choir of Church Street, tendered a hearty and affectionate farewell on Monday evening to one of its most prominent members, Amherst A. Afford, who leaves for a new field of labor in London, Ont., where he will also join his friends. In Mr. Afford, George Street Church is losing one of its main pillars, being first vice-president of the league, a teacher in the Sabbath school and a member of the choir. He takes with him the hearty wishes and prayers of his many friends and fellow-workers."
CONCERT AT SOCIETY HALL.
The Maids of England held a very enjoyable concert in Society Hall, East London, last evening. A large crowd was in attendance, and one and all voted the affair a great success. Dr. English presided very ably. A fine programme was given, and at its conclusion the annual distribution of prizes took place. The following were among those taking part in the programme: Misses Stilson, Chipp, Sanborn, Ball, Dyson, Jones, Burleigh, Mowatt and Gower, and Messrs. Leah, Teddy Williamson, Chamberlain, Miles, Adair, Hogg and Sanderson. Several recitations were also given by a group of young "Maids of England."

MOVING TO LONDON.
The Times, of Brockville, has the following: "The combined forces of the George Street Epworth League and the choir of Church Street, tendered a hearty and affectionate farewell on Monday evening to one of its most prominent members, Amherst A. Afford, who leaves for a new field of labor in London, Ont., where he will also join his friends. In Mr. Afford, George Street Church is losing one of its main pillars, being first vice-president of the league, a teacher in the Sabbath school and a member of the choir. He takes with him the hearty wishes and prayers of his many friends and fellow-workers."
CONCERT AT SOCIETY HALL.
The Maids of England held a very enjoyable concert in Society Hall, East London, last evening. A large crowd was in attendance, and one and all voted the affair a great success. Dr. English presided very ably. A fine programme was given, and at its conclusion the annual distribution of prizes took place. The following were among those taking part in the programme: Misses Stilson, Chipp, Sanborn, Ball, Dyson, Jones, Burleigh, Mowatt and Gower, and Messrs. Leah, Teddy Williamson, Chamberlain, Miles, Adair, Hogg and Sanderson. Several recitations were also given by a group of young "Maids of England."
