WOODS'FAIR

BIG NOVEMBER CHINA SALE

Beginning Wednesday, November 11, and Ending Saturday, November 28. A Chance to Buy China for Christmas at a Bargain.

Every lady in London should attend this big fifteen days' sale.

Every piece of china in our basement reduced, excepting stock patterns.

This is not an auction sale. You have a chance to see what you are buying. Our china stock is too large. We need the room. It will save you money if you buy now.

All goods marked in plain figures. You may see the regular price and then the sale price also on every piece.

Some articles will be marked as low as 25 per cent off; but everything in china marked down.

Make a deposit on a piece of china and we will keep it for you until December 1 and give you the advantage of sale prices.

Our stock never looked better. Our art room is a perfect dream of fine china.

Don't forget the date, November 11, the sale starts, and back to regular prices after November 28 .Everybody come.

WOODS' FAIR

J. M. THOMSON

A SOCIAL CHIMPANZEE

Like a Gentleman.

Paris, Nov. 10.-Mrs. Abveu, by birth a

Cuban, well known in society here and in

New York, rejoices in the possession of a most gifted pet, a wise and cultivated and good manners.

chimpanzee. All Paris is laughing over

The Marquis del Muni, the Spanish ambassador at Paris, was one of Mrs. Ab-party had seated themselves one chair at elegant costume of scarlet cloth, bowing profoundly and gravely, took the chair

"Ambassador," laughed the hostess, "if "Madame," returned the ambassador,

So the extraordinarily intelligent chim panzee, which Mrs. Abveu herself edu-said Mrs. Abveu several times.

admitted to Mrs. Abveu's table warm bath twice a week.

cated, remained at the table. It behaved

The luncheon finished, the chimpanzee

This chimpazee saw Mrs. Abveu brush-ing her teeth one morning. The next morning she saw the chimpanzee going through the motions of brushing its teeth.

Now it uses a toothbrush and tooth pow-

Identified by Girl He Had Beaten Into

Biloxi, Miss., Nov. 10. - Henry Leidy was taken three-quarters of a mile to the city and dispersed. The body of lynched was committed today upon and criminal assaults have recently club, and she was found several hours negro was captured without their use

Among Austrian railways briquettes are used only by the state railways,

They used last year 33,000 tons made

English briquettes. The coal used during the same period amounted to 4,400,000 tons. The briquettes were of and was identified by the girl.

veu's guests at luncheon.

main, pray tell me so and so silent.

ter than to eat.

NEWS ITEMS FROM WESTERN ONTARIO

Fire did $2,500 damage to Linder & Watson's grocery store in Clinton last Toronto ratepayers will vote on a bylaw to reduce the number of hotel licenses in January.

A second petition, asking that vote be taken on the local option the table was unoccupied. A tall chimquestion, will be circulated in Dutton panzee, walking erect, and wearing an

Fred Kimble, of Hamilton, formerly until then vacant, which happened to be of Galt, was sentenced yesterday to next to the Spanish ambassador. three years in Kingston Penitentiary you do not desire your neighbor to re-The turning of the first sod if the hydro-electric commission's line next with perfect gravity, "let me remind you fice, not direct from Ottawa. All corthat, as a diplomat, I must be deeply in-Wednesday will be followed by a banterested by a creature so gentlemanlyquet in the parliament buildings.

McCormick & White, of Windsor, were yesterday awarded $3,003 and costs, damages against the Booth Fish Company. The dispute arose over the

The C. P. R. will have to build bridge at Walkerton over a level crossing. That was the decision of madame," said the ambassador. "Superb the railway commission at Toronto as is your luncheon, to watch him is bet-

Catherines yesterday, declared that present and retired. the grand jury was essential to the administration of justice, and was doing efficient service.

Thos. Elliott, of Brantford, is suing the Windsor, Essex and Lake Shore Railway for $100,000, because the directors failed to carry out their agreement with him that he should con

Rev. J. P. Falconer, B. A., whose induction into the pastorate of the Presbyterian Church at Rodney was to der, and like its three brethren has have taken place Nov. 24, is postponed indefinitely, as Mr. Falconer is in the General Hospital at Hamilton with NIG TO ASSAULTER LYNCHED

John H. Roddick, Lyndhurst, Tells His Experience.

AFTER TWO YEARS' SUFFERING from the jail and lynched this after-WITH LAME BACK AND WEAK noon. Not a single shot was fired; the KIDNEYS, WAS CURED BY DR. mob was orderly and marched back HAMILTON.

Lyndhurst, Ont., Noy. 10 .- The following statement made by Mr. Roddick, lumber merchant, tells of the remarkable knowledge possessed by Dr.

"Two years ago I had grippe which settled in my back and kidneys. I was sickly and very miserable, suffered great pain and inconvenience. Different remedies were tried without benefit and then I decided to try Dr. Hamilton's Mandrake and Butternut Pills. I derived immense good from their use in short time. When two boxes were used I was immeasurably better. Today I am well. Neighbors suffering from kidney and back trouble have also been cured by Dr. Hamilton's Pills which I am convinced is the best medicine for regulating and cleansing at Pilsen, Bohemia, and 11,000 tons of the system. They are very mild, but do the work just the same." Nothing so certain in diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, and kidneys as two sizes—one weighing 2.2 pounds Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25 cents, at all and the other 4.4 pounds, both kinds

FOR GREGORY

Years by Marine Department Contractor.

opened at 10:30, with as many orders as possible. James Holliday in the box. He is one of the firm of Holliday Bros., genmarine and fisheries.

He told Mr. Watson today that the books he produced had been kept by Philip Hayn, who had been with the firm seven years. The firm's checks from February to July, 1905, are missing A lot of correspondence with Ottawa, the witness' personal account, and some other records, were not forthcoming, and the witness was ordered to have them brought, and was let go for the present.

Suspended Men's Request. Mr. M. A. Lemieux, on behalf of four suspended officials, made application for a hearing. These are Messrs. Narcisse Dufour, Paul Bolduc, Louis Gagne and E. Nolet. Mr. Watson promised these gentle-twenty-eight suspended ones an opportunity to be heard," he remarked. "Suspension does not imply guilty," added Judge Cassels, "and, of course, I have nothing to do with what the ministers thought proper." Senator Choquette promised a statement from men a hearing tomorrow morning. We would gladly accord all of the Work Without Contracts.

Mr. Davie, of George T. Davie & Sons, of Levis, acknowledged accounts never has been so severely judged by of $146,000 with the Government in his Parliament as he was today durthree years, though he said he was not ing the debate in the Reichstag on the on the patronage list. He dealt interpellations concerning the converthrough Mr. Gregory mostly by tele- sations published with the permission phone. The firm repairs ships, and of the Emperor in the London Daily witness had taken contracts for as Telegraph on Oct. 28. nuch as $15,000 by telephone. "Did you have any arrangement regarding the prices?" abor or material?

"Sometimes we were called upon to make a contract. "Apart from that where no contracts were made, there was no understand-

At last the witness confessed that cessors could remain in office unless there had only been one contract during the three years. sits at the Dinner-Table and Behaves the polite champanzee's social qualities be?" "And the' would have been practi- and not to the crown alone. cable in other cases?"

> Just One Exception. for repairs to the Milwaukee.

> "Yes." The witness said he was personally acquainted with the department officials, but had no intimate personal the incident there was hardly a vacant friendship with any of them. His relations had been purely business ones. He denied having in his books a personal account with Mr. Gregory or any of women. official. The money payable to his firm came through Mr. Gregory's ofrespondence with Ottawa officials had been copied in the letter book. "Did you ever give directions that such letters need not be copied?" "I did not," replied the witness in perfectly, used napkin, fork and spoon aldignantly. most as gracefully as the marquis him-Paid Gregory $500 a Year. "How much have you paid Mr. "Ambassador, you are eating nothing," Gregory yearly in eleven years?" "Five hundred dollars a year." was "I am watching our friend here the startling answer. Witness was asked to produce checks, but had nothing earlier than Aug. 8, 1904. This check was marked pay-Sir William R. Meredith, at St. gallantly kissed the hands of the ladies able simply to cash. "Mr. Cash," remarked Mr. Watson. Mrs. Abveu has a residence in New York, and maintains a private zoological Witness said he gave it to Mr.Gregory at his Quebec office. garden at her magnificent home near Ha-"You said you had not a personal vana. She brought four chimpanzees to Paris and a negress to take care of them. account with him. Did you enter that Usually the great monkeys dine together as paid to Mr. Gregory?" at their own table. Occasionally the most intelligent of the surprising quartette is "Not anywhere, in any book?"

"In the check book." But the check book was not forthcoming. "Then it does not appear in any book?"

bore the name of Dan McGee & Sons,

"They are brokers and I had it cashnot give it to be honestly cashed by you personally to Mr. Gregory?" "Yes, that's it."

"Because I wished to shield him."

admitted t1 witness, amid a tense another one. It was for $800 and the The crime for which the negro was cash went to Mr. Gregory.

Still another was on Sept. 10, 1907, Elizabeth Hauser, 17 years old, at West and the witness thought it might have ity of the German people are hostile to crown is indispensable. If this proves End, near here, where several murders gone to Mr. McConkey, shipping engineer in the marine department here. been charged to negroes. The negro There was a payment of that amount and beat the girl into insensibility, with a to him, anyway.

A Red Pencil Check.

Check 416 was rather mysterious. It partially regained consciousness and witness thought at first it was for respect. crawled to where she was discovered. wages. The wages checks, however, Bloodhounds were secured, but the were marked wages, and this wasn't. it was made out in red pencil, and our interests in the Pacific Ocean, tinue to serve the Emperor and the namarked cash.

"Will you say it was not given to Mr. Gregory? "I will say it was not."

"Was it for a Government official? The witness thought it was not. "It's charged up to wages," he de clared, after examining the cash book "What was done with it?"

"I can't swear." "Here's another on Oct. 15, 1907, fo $50. Who was it for?"

Mr. Michael Thibaudeau, grocer, the next witness examined, stated that he had sold $7,000 worth of groceries to the department of marine and fisheries from 1904 to 1907, by orders received from Mr. Gregory, and that in order Paid $500 Yearly for Eleven to get spot cash from Mr. Gregory he used to pay him 5 per cent.

M. Martel, another grocer, had sold from 1903 to 1907 $7,000 worth of groceries to the department through Mr. Gregory, and had regularly paid to Mr. Gregory 5 per cent. It was a net loss fo him, but he used to give that comquiry into the marine department this mission to Ir. Gregory in order to get

Mr. Schmidt, general inspector o everything supplied to the department eral shipping merchants. During the of marine and fisheries from Halifax last three years they have had $45,000 to Vancouver, confessed that he had of accounts with the department of received from time to time from Mr Drolet about $1,000.

Mr. Wiggs, of the Mechanics' Supply Company, said that in three years he had sold $7,000 worth of material to the department of marine and fisheries and that he never paid any commission to Mr. Gregory, but stated he had since 1902 a personal claim of $269 against Mr. Gregory for goods which he had sold to him for his private use and which he had never been able to collect. Asked why, he replied that Mr. Gregory was a gentleman very hard to

ALL REICHSTAG SLAPS AT KAISER

Emperor Roundly Denounced Before Great Assemb'age for That Interview.

Berlin, Nov. 10.-Emperor William

The criticisms of his majesty's court, his ministers and his majesty's treatment of the constitution as well as of his freedom of speech, went to lengths "Not for what you would charge for that astonished observers acquainted with the traditional caution of the chamber in dealing with the personality of the sovereign. And the Emperor seemed to have no defenders. Chancellor Von Buelow made an address lasting 15 minutes, but he lacked his usual spirit and a person high in his confidence is authority for the state- | ment that he had also told the Emperor that neither himself nor his suc-

his majesty was more reserved. The House received Von Buelow's ex-"Well, it was quite the exception planation in icy silence. The Conservthen?" remarked Mr. Watson sarcas- atives, representing largely the landed nobility, were almost as relentless The one contract was let this year National-Liberals and today's proceedings are regarded by the extreme Lib-"In that instance you were able to erals as the beginning of a long conestimate what your charges would test between the crown and Parliament that may end in Germany having ministry responsible to Parliament

A Crowded House.

When Herr Basserman, the National-Liberal leader, a friend of Chancellor Von Buelow, began his discussion of seat on the members' benches, while the galleries were brilliant with the uniforms of officers and the costumes

In the royal box were Prince Christian of Schlesberg-Holstein, Duke Ernest Guenther, a brother of the Empress; General Jacoby, the imperial adjutant and General Von Moltke, chief of the general staff, while on the raised platforms, facing the chamber, were the members of the Bundesrath, including the envoys of the German federated states. Herr Bassermann was followed by Herr Reimer, Radical, and he in turn gave way to Herr Singer, Royalist, who declared that if any other servant of the state had done such a thing as had Emperor William he extension of the German fleet is just would be brought before an imperial as little intended for aggression in the Prince Von Buelow spoke earnestly in Germany's policy is not to limit the n reply to the critics of the Govern- development of Japan.

ment and the Emperor. He said: the effect they will have abroad. I do with Great Britain, often under diffinot wish to add fresh prejudice to the cult circumstances. Another check, dated July 22, 1905, by of some academic ideas concerning doubts to arise.

ence, and it was without practical sig- after anyone, but I quite understand nificance for the operations then going the Emperor's feeling aggrieved when on or for the end of the war. "We must defend our policy during honest efforts to bring about good rethe Boer war against accusation and lations with Great Britain. Some have equivocation. We gave timely warning gone so far as to imply secret designs to the Boers that they would be alone against England, and that there was with the fleet, but these are entirely "Five hundred dollars cash paid by no doubt regarding the result. The false. facts that the reference to the question of intervention long have been public the unjustified misunderstanding of his Then came a check for $75, cashed at property, and whether the communica- utterances that the reference to Great the same place on May 1. 1906. It was tion of these to Queen Victoria consti- Britain, and the excitement and regret the negro remained hanging to the tree for Engineer Petit, of the Montcalm, tuted a violation of diplomatic rules aroused thereby in Germany will, I am 30 minutes and hundreds of persons On Aug. 30, 1906, the brokers cashed depends on circumstances unknown to convinced, lead the Emperor in future "Concerning the statement attrib- reserve which in the interest of a uniuted to Emperor William, that a major- form policy and the authority of the Great Britain, the expression used by not to be so, neither I nor any one of the Telegraph is too strong. Serious my successors could take the responhave existed between Great Britain and publication of the article in the Daily Germany, but the German people de- Telegraph and offered my resignation, sire peaceful and friendly relations and it was the most difficult task in The negro left her for dead, but she was for $200 on Oct. 13, 1906, and the with that empire joined with mutual my political life to resolve to remain > the point in the interview dealing with duty at this difficult period to conwhich are incorrectly presented as inimical to Japan. We never thought about East Asia, except for the purpose of obtaining a portion of the

Killed by Blood Poisoning. corns. Foolish, because a 25c bottle eign politics. of Putnam's Corn Extractor will cure only Putnam's

WEATHER PROBS:

Wednesday.

New and Fashionable,

Cloth and

Fur-Lined.

EVERY WOMAN INTERESTED IN WINTER COAT STYLES NOW

And every woman awake to the turn of fashion knows the leading part these long Beaver and Broadcloth Coats will play in the world of dress this winter.

Beauty, elegance, economy, all recommend them. They represent good dressing for day or evening.

The Smallman & Ingram collection of such garments is wonderful, and we believe unequalled for Even at the low prices, the cloth is so excellent, the style so attractive, that many a customer confesses them far superior to her expectations.

Long Winter Coats, $6.50 to $20, Ladies' and Misses'

Ladies' 3/4-length Beaver Coats, semi-fitting and half-lined; trimmed with buttons and solid stitched strappings, in navy, brown and fawn......$12.50

Ladies' 7/8-length Beaver Coats, empire style; shawl collar of velvet; applique and embroidery trimming, forming yoke effect back and front; half-lined, in brown, myrtle and fawn, for ......$20.00

Misses' Coats of Frieze, double-breasted box style, edges of collar, cuffs and front bound with braid, in navy, brown and black, for only ......$6.50

Misses' Beaver Coat, semi-fitting, half-lined, strapped over shoulder, in brown, blue, cardinal, green

Fashionable Fur-Lined Coats, $43 to $95

This range of prices includes Fur-Lined Coats, with squirrel, hamster and muskrat linings; marmot, sable, Isabella fox, lynx and mink collars.

LADIES' FUR-LINED, $59.00, in navy, brown, myrtle and black broadcloth, 50-inch length, muskrat lining, sable collar, coat trimmed with strappings of cloth. Splendid style for .......$59.00

LADIES' FUR-LINED, $75.00, in black broadcloth, full box style, 50 inches long, with grey and white squirrel lining and mink collar. Excellent quality throughout. Guar-

LADIES' FUR-LINED, $83.00, in navy broadcloth, 52-inch length, trimmed with braid, hamster lining, and black lynx collar. A very popular style and best quality throughout, for ...... $83.00

Scores of other styles, equally good values. See them. Third floor. Take elevator.

Saturday.

Dundas and included. trade arising from economic development, and we have no idea of undertaking a maritime adventure there. The

"For twenty years the Empero "I must weigh my words, because of has striven to improve the relations damage already caused by the publi- both countries occasionally have atcation in the Daily Telegraph. I as- tacked each other without real justifisume that the details given therein cation, and the Emperor considered are not all correct, and I am certain this a misfortune for both and a danger that the story about a detailed plan to the civilized world. The Emperor's of campaign to end the Boer war is idealistic thoughts, purposes and efnot right. This plan consisted mere- forts, often without reason, have caused the conduct of war in general, which anything like the currying of favor the Emperor conveyed to Queen Vic- abroad, and anything appearing to toria in the course of their correspond- savor of our insecurity or the running attacked because of his zealous and against Great Britain in connection

Pacific Ocean as in Europe. The task

"The recognition by his majesty of private conversations, to exercise that regrettable misunderstandings sibility. I accepted the blame for the in office. How long I will continue I "Too great stress also is laid upon do not know, but I consider it my

Herr Von Heidebrandt and Prince Hatzefeldt, Conservatives, and Baron Von Hertling, a member of the Centre Party, took part in the debate, and energetically protested against the per-Used an old razor for paring his sonal element being injected into for-

Herr Libermann Von Sonnenberg all the corns in the family for a year. the Agrarian and anti-Semite, sur-Safe, because purely vegetable. Use prised the House by the vehemence of his utterances. He declared that the Monarchists, with heavy hearts, found ! themselves compelled to protest firm- into commission the North Dakots ly against the Emperor's statements. The nation's confidence, he said, has $10,000,000. Nearly $1,000,000 of this sunk to zero.

"We do not believe." he continued. "that the chancellor can take the responsibility or that the future will bring any real improvement. The improvement will last only until the next time. Evidence exists that there is further material in foreign hands for use when the occasion calls."

The House adjourned to meet tomorrow, and when the chancellor departed the crowds outside the doors cheered and hooted him.

On her recent visit to New Orleans Mrs. Maude Ballington Booth passed at least one strenuous day. She preached at a prison in the morning, held an informal reception in the midafternoon, then preached at House of Detention, after this held another reception, then addressed the Era Club, which wound up with third informal reception.

The Dain Manufacturing Company, of Ottumwa, Iowa, have purchased 100 acres of land at Welland and will establish a Canadian branch of their manufactory there. They make agri cultural implements will represent an initial outlay of will be spent for guns alone. are 10 12-inch guns at $65,000 each. and 14 5-inch rifles at $10,000 each in the main battery, besides 12 rapid-fire guns and minor pieces.

OLD SORES: NO CURE, NO PAY. Druggists refund money if DR. POR-TER'S ANTISEPTIC HEALING OIL

does all it does by virtue of one thing-Power-its power to create power.

As fire turns water to steam so Scott's Emulsion transforms thin, impure blood into pure, ri-h blood, giving nourishment and vital energy to every organ, every tissue and paper in which it appears, your address and four cents to cover postage, and we will send you i "Complete Handy Atlas of the World." SCOTT & BOWNE every muscle.