WRECK IN CHICAGO

Many Women and Children Killed When Engine Hits Street Car.

Associated Press Despatch. Chicago, Nov. 2.-Ten passengers were killed and two were seriously injured early today when a Chicago. Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad freight train, backing into the yards here, wrecked a crowded street car crossing the tracks. Most of the victims were neighbors returning from a Halloween party, and many wore masquerade costume.

The dead are: Katherine Ruedhausen, 21; Mrs. Mary Garritty, 35, and four-year-old daughter, Anna May; Mrs. Elizabeth Burns. 40; unidentified woman, 20; Patrick O'Malley, 57; Bennie Cadelieri, 30; William Walch, 45; Dr. M. Shenkin, 70; Elmer Belanfleth, no age given, Mrs. Garritty and her daughter were suf-focated and trampled in the panic which ensued when the street car was shunted across the street and crashed into a watchmen's tower. Police and firemen were rushed to the scene following the passengers screaming and fighting in the darkness for the exits. Rescuers used saws, axes and crowbars to break away the wreckage and extricate the victims.

Joseph Brahe, 59, crossing watchman, was ordered held for the cor-oner's inquest tomorrow after police-men found the gates which protect men found the gates which protect the crossing intact after the accident, indicating, they said, that they had not been lowered to warn the ear crew. Two physicians who examined him shortly after the wreck said he had been drinking, and detectives said an empty bottle, smelling of whiskey, had been found in the tower. The crews of the street car and freight train, also questioned, were released after railroad and car com pany officials promised Coroner Oscar Wolff they would have them present at the inquest. Carl Olsen, conductor, and Robert Glenn, motorman of the car, said the crossing gates were up as the car started across the railroad right-of-way.

Physicians expressed doubt of the recovery of six of the injured, among them two small children and several women. The unidentified woman wore a masquerade costume and had only an initialed ring as a clue to her

Coroner Wolff and Morgan A. Col lins, chief of police, took personal charge of the investigation.
