

Strike At Roseland

Miners Called Out by the Union and Work on Big Properties Stopped.

Twelve Hundred Men in the Camp Will be Idle Today.

Trail Smelter Closes Down Copper Furnaces for Lack of Ore.

Roseland, July 11.—All the miners employed by the Roseland Great Western mines are on strike today. The total number of men affected is about 900.

The situation has been without incident as yet and a fairly good spirit prevails among the parties interested.

Trail, July 11.—The Trail smelter closed down its large copper furnaces in room in consequence of the strike.

HIDDEN MYSTERY. Men Who Make Money by Frightening Their Dupes.

From Cassell's Saturday Journal.

There is more money to be made in terrorizing your country than in any other way.

How do they work? Most of them rent a quiet ordinary house perhaps in the middle of a row of houses.

The mode of fastening the seal to the document has also undergone many changes from that early day when the parchment was cut at the bottom with a penknife in order to form a flap.

There is an interesting reminiscence of the old seal in the comments on the most important, silver-thread cords used; silk is considered good enough for your future; and on the roof, in a small cell open to the sky, an astrologer with phosphorescent panels.

Why do the people come? Well, all sorts of promises are made out to the poor. They, by incantations, can change for you your luck.

But a man I had some of so comfortable. Ice cold hands clasped his wrists, and he was turned head over heels to find himself in a coffin.

The following from the San Francisco Argonaut goes to prove that the bounds or limits to the spreading of advertising are not to be exceeded.

THE GREAT SEAL.

Customs Connected With It Which Still Survive.

From London Leader.

In the usual course of events there will soon appear upon the more important of state documents the elaborate impress of the Great Seal of King Edward VII.

The Great Seal is one of the very few symbols of sovereign power which are constantly being changed.

The seal is drawn up and signed, but not before, the chief engraver to His Majesty can set to work.

When the new seal is first brought into use, it is laid on the table at a meeting of the Privy Council, to be approved.

THE BAPTISTS SESSION

Proceedings at the Three Meetings of the Convention Yesterday.

Yesterday morning's session of the Baptist convention opened with devotional exercises, led by Bro. Sloan.

The report of the education board, which, in the absence of Bro. E. McNeil, the board had arranged a course of study and opened a correspondence division to reach the churches of Canada, under twelve instructors.

The recommendation of the Sunday school committee, advocating Canadian Sunday school publications, was debated before adjourning, but time made it necessary to adjourn before any action was taken.

The afternoon session was taken up by the report of the publication board of the Western Baptists.

BATTLE OF THE MUSES

Victoria Poet Turns His Guns on His Rivals of "Picturesque Seattle."

Everyone appreciated most heartily the Colonist's effort to place the beauties of the city before outsiders by the publication of "Picturesque Victoria," but we are sadly behind the times.

Why Dawson Should Get It

Interesting Letter on the Question of Establishment of an Assay Office.

W. T. Thompson, Editor of the Yukon Sun Deals With the Matter.

In a letter to a friend in this city, Mr. W. F. Thompson, editor and manager of the Yukon Sun, writes from the Dawson point of view on the question of the establishment of an assay office in that city in preference to Victoria or Vancouver.

Yukon has no objections to the continued display of jealousy between Victoria and Vancouver, so long as it is confined to British Columbia affairs, but when it is extended to include matters that affect us, it is different.

Established in Dawson, we consider the value of those matters of importance. In the first place, you cannot get the dust of Yukon.

Here in Dawson the gold dust problem is our curse. It demoralizes business. Here we take gold dust for $10 per ounce.

The assay office established in Dawson would be a boon to every individual in Yukon, save those who speculate in gold dust.

Where are the rest of them, said one of our men, who understood English. There are no more, I replied.

What a beautiful pastoral! Cannot Victoria give up her loins and go one better? How would this do?
