Money spent on a reliable fire engine would bring better returns than some that has been spent lately.

ACCORDING to the Bishop of London, the best test of a man's or woman's honour is the three-penny (six cent) bit. Speaking at Fulham in opening a bazaar, he said;—"Those who put a penny or a three-penny bit in the church plate when they can well afford a half-crown have no sense of honor at all." The Bishop added that it was the meanest trick for anyone to give less than one was able to afford merely because one's fellow-creature's could not see what was being
