YOU SHOULD VISIT OUR HOUSEFURNISHINGS DEPARTMENT THESE DAYS

THESE Spring days mean "Housecleaning" and then you are reminded of the many new things required to brighten up the home after the long dull winter. By a visit to this store you will be surprised at what a small cost that old carpet can be replaced by a modern sanitary rug-how much labor can be saved by a nice bright linoleum on some other floor-and how much more cheery you can have other rooms by the addition of new draperies.

RUGS AND CARPETS

You will be surprised and delighted by the assortment and values we are showing in rugs, and our new revolving rack makes it so easy to see them and compare. Wilton, Axminster, Velvet, Brussels, Tapestry and Wool Rugssizes 2×21 yds. to $4 \times 4\frac{1}{2}$; prices from \$5.00 to \$50.00. Stair and Floor Carpets in a great variety from 15c to \$1.25 per yard.

LINOLEUMS AND OILCLOTHS

The best Scotch and Canadian makes. Linoleum-2, 3 and 4 yards wide. Oilcloth-from 36 inches to 72 inches wide. Border Oil-18 inches to 36 inches. Border Linoleum—inlaid patterns, 18 to 36

CURTAINS AND DRAPERIES

We have just passed through the customs, direct from Manchester, the finest range and values in lace curtains that we have ever offered. Specials at 50c., 75c., $1.00, and $1.50 per pair. New Nets, Scrims, Madras and Muslins, in white, cream and ecru.....8c to 90c per yd. Chintz, for furniture covering, at 20c and 25c.

POLES AND ROLLER BLINDS

The Late Philip Hansford

The death occurred at the hospital Tuesday evening, April 6, following a short illness, of Philip G. Hansford, a well-known and highly esteemed citizen. Deceased was born about seventy-seven years ago in Adelaide Township, where he continously resided until about eight years ago, when he retiged to Strathroy. He was one of the old timers and exper-ienced the trials and privations of the pioneer settlers, when the township was little alea then, wild drawer of feart. pioneer settlers, when the township was little else than a wilderness of forest. He leaves a large family of grown-up sons and daughters viz:—John W., of Aberfeldy; George, of Inwood; Walter J., of Callandar, Thomas W., of Saskatoon; Issac, of Bateman, Sask., and Charles, on the old homestead, lot 28, con. 2, S. E. R., Adelaïde; Mrs. A. H. McLaughlan, of Hardisty, Alberta; Mrs. Myron Linton, of Fernhill, and Mrs. John Wood, of Adelaïde. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Thomas Woodward. of London. The funeral was held on Satur-London. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon from W. H. Tanton's undertaking parlors to the Strathroy cemetery.—Strathroy Dispatch.

Death of R. W. Mitchell

The death took place on Friday morning last, at the residence of his son Angus, in Ridgetown, of R. W. Mitchell in his 77th year.

On March 8th last, Mr. Mitchell, who was then a resident of Caradoc Township, had a clearing auction sale, and soon afterwards went to Ridgetown to take up his residence. On Sunday, April 4, he was taken ill with pleura pneumonia and died on Friday morning.

The remains were interred in the Strathroy cemetery on Monday, the funeral taking place from W. H. Tanton's undertaking parlors at 1.30 o'clock, service being conducted by Rev. A. E. Jones, of the Methodist Church. The pallbearers were E. Ferguson, Joseph Robinson, S. Oakes, D. J. Donaldson, W. Cockrill and M. Fisher.—Strathroy Dispatch.

Not exactly sick—but not feeling quitewell. That is the way most people feel in the spring. Easily tired, appetite fickle, sometimes headaches, and a feeling of depression. Pimples or eruptions may appear on the skin, or there may be twinges of rheumatism or neuraglia. Any of these indicate that the blood is out of the spring.

of these indicate that the blood is out of a coder—that the indoor life of winter has left its mark upon you and may easily develop into more serious trouble.

Do not dose yourself with purgatives as so many people do, in the hope that you can put your blood right. Purgatives gallop through the system and weaken instead of giving strength. Any doctor will tell you this is true.
