Announcement of FARM BUILDINGS PLAN SERVICE

We have just put in a Plan Service, including Plans, Specifications, and bills of material for various types of farm buildings. Every farmer will be interested in this service, because it will enable him to build better and more economically. The plans include Barns, Implement Sheds, Hog Houses, Poultry Houses, Garage, Granary and Milk House. Every one of these buildings has been built many times. They are designed by men who know the farmers' needs. They are thoroughly practical, and have been drawn to utilize the most economical sizes, lengths and grades of lumber.

Come in and see these plans, or let us send them to you.

Our service is free and asking for plans does not in any way obligate you.

Prohibition Convention

Toronto, Jan. 14.—What will in all probability be the greatest gathering of Ontario prohibitionist and temperance workers ever held in the province will take place on February 26, 27 and 28, when the annual provincial prohibition convention will be held in Massey Hall.

Preparation or pains for the campaign to be conducted previous to the referendum in June, 1918, when the people will be called upon to retain or repeal the liquor regulations already established in the province, is the primary objects of the convention. From twelve to fifteen hundred delegates are expected to attend.

When cutting wood at Alfred Symington's Plympton, last Wednesday, Jas. Smith cut the end off his thumb. He was running a circular saw and had his thumb drawn into it.

Smallpox in Sarnia Closes Postoffice

Sarnia, Jan. 14.—As a result of the smallpox outbreak here, the postoffice was ordered closed this afternoon. Temporary quarters have been opened in the building at 217 North Front street, formerly occupied by the gas company. Health Inspector Alex. Crosbie stated tonight that there are 17 cases of the disease under quarantine.

Health officers from the provincial board in Toronto are on the way here to help check the outbreak. A postoffice staff from London will take over the postoffice work, and there will be no interruption in the service.

From Old Subscribers

Miss A. M. Andrews, of Chemainus, B. C., writes:—Enclosed please find one dollar and fifty cents for our home paper. We're all very proud of it. For a local it surpasses any I see, even those from "Bruce." With best wishes for the coming year.
