ARKONA

The marriage of Miss Iva B. White daughter of Mrs. Laura White, to Mr. Cecil I. McKellar of Kingston, took place Tuesday afternoon at 3.30 p.m. at the United church parsonage, Arkona, the Rev. E. J. Roulston officiating. The bride looked charming in a faded gown of rose georgette trimmed with fur and wore a beige fur trimmed coat with hat and gloves to match. She carried a shower bouquet of ophelia roses and filices of the valley and wore the groom's gift, a platinum and onyx dinner ring. After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served at the bride's home, which was prettily decorated with mauve and yellow flowers. Later Mr. and Mrs. McKellar motored to London where they took the train for Toronto. After a few days there, they will go to their new home in Kingston.

Dr. Fred Stoner of Adrian, Mich., made a flying visit to Arkona last week.

Mrs. Temple of Watford will make her home with her grand-daughter, Mrs. Fields for the winter.

Mr. Samuel Rivers made a business trip to the Niagara fruit district during the past week.

Special Thanksgiving services will be held in the United church on Sunday, Nov. 8th, morning and evening. Rev. J. R. Hall of Sarnia, secretary of the Presbytery, will preach. These services will be followed on Monday night with a fowl supper and concert.

Mr. and Mrs. James Riggs of Flint spent the weekend with friends in town.

Messrs. Herman Holmes and Peter McNaughton, who have spent the past eight months in Detroit returned to their respective homes here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin of Detroit called on Arkona friends during the weekend.

At the quarterly service held in the United church last Sunday morning, eleven children were baptized, and an interesting part of the ceremony was that eight of them were less than one year old.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. George of London spent the weekend at his home.

At the special Thanksgiving services to be held in the United church next Sunday, the Arkona orchestra will assist with the musical part of the program at both services.

Mr. Jacob Richter returned home last week from Saskatchewan where he has been visiting friends.

Checks, stripes and plain flannels in all the leading shades. See them at Brown Bros.

Mr. Glen Miller left on Saturday for to spend a few days with his brother Roy in Detroit.

Mr. W. J. Fuller, who has spent the past two months in Alberta, returned home on Wednesday of last week.
