

EDITORIAL NOTICES AND ANSWERS.

Subscriptions received during the month of September.—Miss T., (Agatown, 60 cents; F. S. Apolauqui, 60 cents; Queensbury, $1.50; C. W., Pettedodiac, 60 cents; St. Andrews, $4.20. Woodstock, 60 cents; Mrs. C., Lower Burton, 60 cents.

As some doubt exists on the subject, we wish it to be distinctly understood that the former editor of the CHURCH MAGAZINE has had no part in conducting it since he gave up the editorship.

J. P., FREDERICTON.—There was a mistake in the matter of the notices sent to Dumfries.

L. H. B., (England), will please accept our warmest thanks for her kindness, and we hope that the magazine will always be conducted in such a way as to meet the approval of so true and good a Churchwoman.

A. F. S.—You will see that a portion of what you sent was anticipated by one of your friends.

YOUNG PRIEST.—1. We are glad to hear that the Church movement is making such headway in the country parishes. There are hopeful signs in St. John, also. 2. We are not at all sure if the Curate you mention has expressed his regret at having been admitted to Holy Orders in our communion. 3. Assuredly, the strength of the Church depends on the young people in this diocese.

YOUNG COMMUNICANT.—The former editor of this magazine had nothing whatever to do with the printing of the "The Churchman's Calendar." It was published by a layman, on his own responsibility, and was not generally sent enclosed in the magazine.

Copies of the Church Catechism can now be had at the office of this magazine, or at the store of G. N. Beck, King Street. Price 3 cents.

ERRATA.—In the account of the Maine Convention, in the August number, the words "Southern position of the house" should have been "South side of the nave."

In the story of the New Curate in the September number, the word "sacred" should have been "scarred"; and the words "beheaded with Matthew," page 70, should have been "beheaded with a halbert." In the paper Howing at the Name of Jesus, page 74, for "reasons which we implied," read "reasons which were implied."

There were a few other typographical mistakes in the same number of the magazine.
