

THE CANADIAN POULTRY REVIEW

DEVOTED TO Poultry, Pigeons & Pet Stock

Vol. II.

TORONTO, ONTARIO, MARCH, 1888.

No. 3.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

WHAT WE MAY EXPECT.

Chickens,
If the breeding stock are vigorous
And in good health.
Clear eggs,
If they are not.
No Provincial Exhibition this year.
More Canadian birds
At "Uncle Sam's" exhibitions next year.
The REVIEW to keep on improving, and
The fanciers to appreciate it.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING.

"Alas! poor Ontario; 86 cents on the dollar.
"Whither are we drifting?"—Chorus of Fanciers.
"Shake, REVIEW."—Sid Conger.
"Yankee Doodle."—Jno. Crowe.
"Hail Columbia."—Frank Wixson.
"Will have to adopt REVIEW as our official organ."—A. P. A.
"Jes' so, gentlemen; Jes' so."—Ye editor man.
"We'll pay outsiders in full anyway, whether we have a cent for 'locals' or not."—Stratford Association.
"I give in; too much odds."—Stanley Spillatt.
"The jedge was fixed byes, the jedge was fixed"—The Disappointed Exhibitor.
"I have better birds at home."—The Man who never Exhibits.
"In your mind."—Chorus.

We regret the Stratford Association have come out a little short in funds, but have determined to pay all outside exhibitors in full, for which, exhibitors should see them well repaid next year.

HEAD OF WHITE LEGHORN COCKEREL.

Bred by J. B. Laing, Guelph.

The Secretary of the Stratford Association informs us that he will be happy to give the scores of winning birds in any classes on receipt of a post card for the return of information.

BUSTED

On February 3rd, 1888, the Toronto Black Spanish, Andalusian and Minorca Club, of outward indifference and inward dissention.

MR. A. G. GILBERT, of Ottawa, has been appointed director of the Poultry Department of the Government Experimental Farm, and hopes to move thereto when the proper buildings are put up. His experiments will be in the direction of crossing pure breeds for the purpose of finding out the best and the most profitable as egg and meat producers. MR. GILBERT has kindly promised to give the readers of the REVIEW an occasional letter on this subject.

We regret to learn that the wife of our esteemed friend MR. W. C. G. PETER has been ailing for some time, and is at present visiting Toronto in quest of medical advice. We trust Mrs.
