

DEW DROPS

VOL. IV.

TORONTO, NOVEMBER 10, 1900.

No. 45.

WAIFS.

What poor little children these are! They live down in the slums of the city, where everything is very poor and dirty, and where all sorts of vice and wickedness exist. Of course everybody who is poor is not wicked. Indeed some of the most beautiful Christians are found amid the foulest surroundings. They themselves having once been sinners, perhaps, which proves that what Jesus said is true: "That though our sins be as scarlet they shall be white as snow," if we let him wash them in the "Blood of the Lamb." There is no other way of having sins taken away. Jesus alone is the One who can cleanse us from all unrighteousness.