

ORIENTAL SHEPHERD.

IN the tenth chapter of the Gospel according to John, the Saviour tells us that as a shepherd takes care of his sheep so He takes care of His people. In His description of the shepherd and his sheep there are some things which we cannot very well understand till we know something of the way in which the shepherds of Palestine manage their flocks. Our picture gives some information on that point. It is taken from a sketch of a scene that actually passed before the artist's eye at one of the gates (perhaps "the sheep gate,") of Jerusalem. It can easily be seen
