

Reaching Upward

for higher things in life should be the ambition of every young person. The greatest force lifting us upward to-day is

EDUCATION

In our school we not only train our students for winning advances in salaries, but we strive to give them an upward lift in the development of character. Ours is a system school. No haphazard plans are in vogue here. That is why our school is a great success and why our students are successful. Our name—The

Central Business College
OF TORONTO

is well known as that of the leading school of its kind in Canada.
20 teachers. Best equipment.

Write for our Catalogue to
W. H. SHAW, Principal

Our excellent mail courses are interesting many students just now. If you cannot attend College write for our book,
"Training for Success."