OPINIONS OF EMINENT MUSICIANS.

"The best Musical Text Books for School use that I have yet seen."

I have carefully examined the First and Second Readers of the "Normal Music Course," and have no hesitation in saying that they are the best musical text books for school use that I have yet seen.

EDWARD FISHER,
Conductor of Toronto Choral Society.

From F. H. Torrington, Conductor of the Philharmonic Society, Toronto.

The books of the Normal Music Course are well adapted for use in our schools, and if properly taught and sufficient time set apart in the regular school work to allow of practical effective development, great musical results will be secured, which will be of great value to the country.

F. H. TORRINGTON.

New England Conservatory of Music, Franklin Square, Boston; E. Tourjée, Director.

They have been in daily use in our classes since first published, and with the highest satisfaction. As text books they meet my unqualified approbation.

E. TOURJÉE

THE SCHOOL MUSIC PRIMER.

THE CANADIAN DRAWING COURSE.

EXAMINATION FOR ENTRANCE TO HIGH SCHOOLS.

The following Extract from the Official Regulations relative to Drawing, issued by the Education Department, explains itself:

"Drawing.—Candidates for examination must place their drawing books in the hands of the presiding examiner on the morning of the first day of the examination. Every exercise must be certified by the teacher as being the candidate's own work, and should show his progress during, at least, three months."

A PRACTICAL PUBLIC SCHOOL COURSE OF DRAWING, COMPLETE IN FIVE NUMBERS.

PRICE,

10 cents each.

Book No. 1.—Elementary Freehand Drawing combines exercises in the drawing of straight lines, combinations of lines in rectilinear figures, circles and simple ornaments.

Book No. 2 continues exercises in Elementary Freehand, and gives examples of simple ornaments. Its special subject, however, is the introduction of drawing from the round model.

Book No. 3 continues previous subjects upon a larger scale, and takes up Constructive Drawing and Working Plans.

Book No. 4 has a new and special subject, the cultivation of rapid and accurate perception by the drawing from memory of objects which, having been observed, are removed from view.

Book No. 5 introduces Elementary Freehand Perspective in the drawing of models and familiar objects.

Progressive studies of ornament are continued throughout the course, the examples being derived chiefly from natural forms or from the antique.

BLANK DRAWING BOOKS.

Designed to accompany the Canadian Drawing Course, made of proper size to suit the different books of the series, from very fine Drawing Paper, and

CONTAINING 24 PAGES.

PRICE,

5 cents each.
