

On motion, it was resolved that 500 copies of the Journal of proceedings of this Session be printed.

On motion, it was resolved that the expenses of the Officers in attendance at this Session be paid.

P. G. W. P. Rev. George Christie having called attention to that part of the report of the G. W. P. which refers to the establishment of a Temperance Newspaper, moved the following resolution, which was seconded by brother Smith.

Resolved, That a Periodical specially devoted to the interests of temperance is absolutely necessary—and that the proposed publication seems to be such a one as would suit the present circumstances of the Order in this Province.

Order of business was suspended.

Representative Charles White, W. P. of Central Div. No. 2, was announced in waiting, and members of that Division having vouched that he had been duly elected as a representative to this Grand Division, he was, on motion, introduced and duly initiated.

Order of business resumed.

P. G. W. P. Christie's resolution was taken up, discussed, and adopted.

The Auditing Committee presented the following report:

Your committee appointed to Audit the accounts of the Grand Scribe and Grand Treasurer, beg leave to report that they have carefully examined the same and find them correct.

NATHAN MOSES.

JOHN C. MOULTON.

Masons' Hall, Yarmouth, July 23, 1856.

Adopted.

On motion, brothers Pinkney, Brown and Treat were appointed a committee to make arrangements for a Public Temperance meeting on to-morrow evening.

The Grand Division adjourned.

PATRICK MONAGHAN,
Grand Scribe.