The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church, Elmira, intend giving a "Hard Times" concert some time next month. Everything is being celebrated these days, even to devastating fires.

At the annual meeting of the St. Andrew's Society of the County of Hastings, held at Belleville, on Friday night last. Rev. E. W. Mackay, B.A., of Madoc, was elected one of the chaplains of the society.

Rev. Dr. Moore, of Ottawa, who is a graduate of Princeton College, was present at the great celebration last week. By invitation of the authorities, he on Sunday preached before the faculty and students.

An ordained missionary is wanted for the congregation of Cedarville and Esplin, Saugeen Presbytery. Appointment for six months or a year, stipend $600 without a manse. Apply to Rev. D. MacVicar, Dromore.

The thank-offering at the last meeting of the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary connected with Knox Church, Guelph, amounted to $84. Rev. W. A. J. Martin, pastor of the congregation, delivered an instructive address.

The ministers of the various denominations in Peterborough, a week ago Sabbath, delivered sermons on Parental Authority, Dr. Torrance and Rev. James G. Potter, among others, giving practical and forcible discourses.

Rev. J. Cumming Smith, of Trinity Presbyterian Church, San Francisco, Cal., occupied the pulpit of the First Church, Port Hope, at both services a week ago Sabbath, preaching excellent sermons to very large congregations.

During the next half year, these gentlemen will labor in the mission field of Barrie Presbytery:—W. A. Munro, Hugh Ferguson, A. L. Howard, W. Anderson, J. H. Rodgers, J. J. Jackson, W. B. Hutton and Alex McTaggart.

At the thank-offering meeting in Willis Church, Jarratt's Corner, inspiring and helpful addresses were given by Mrs. R. N. Grant, Orillia, Mrs. D. Cameron, of Allandale and Mrs. N. Campbell, of Oro. The offering was good.

The young people of Knox Church, Tavistock, held a sociable recently. Rev. R. Pyke, the pastor, presiding at the succeeding programme, Miss Murray sang a solo, while recitations were given by the Misses Clara Squires and Maud Pepper.

These names will be balloted upon by the congregation of St. John's Church, Hamilton, for the position of elder: Messrs. R. Balfour, A. Patterson, A. McKenzie, J. Madill, M. Turnbull, W. O. Eastman, J. Gordon, John Kerr, W. H. Wardrope, A. Wilson and J. Shaw.

The annual thank-offering meeting of the St. Paul's, Carluke, W.F.M. Society were very acceptably addressed this year by Rev. Dr. Smyth, now under appointment to India. The pastor presided. The offering was $44.16.

The thank-offering meeting of Winchester W.F.M.S. was held at the manse recently, Mr. Connery, the president, in the chair. This promises to be the most successful year in the history of the society. The offering was upwards of $50.

Rev. D. G. S. Connery, M.A., Winchester, has been reappointed Watkins' lecturer in elocution at Queen's University, to commence duties in November. Mr. Connery held the lectureship for several years before he accepted the call to St. Paul's, Winchester.

During the temporary absence on furlough of the Rev. Principal McVicar, the Rev. John Campbell, LL.D., the senior professor, is president of the Senate of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, and the Rev. Professor Ross, B.D., M.A., takes his place as secretary.

The children of the church at Norval gave an entertainment last week. Rev. Mr. McKay presided at the meeting which followed a substantial supper. Rev. Mr. Dyke and Rev. J. C. Tibb, Streetsville, gave addresses. The little ones carried out their part of the programme nicely.

A farewell reception was given by the people of St. Andrew's Church, Berlin, in honor of their pastor, Rev. R. Atkinson, who has gone upon an extensive trip in the Old Land. Rev. J. H. McVicar delivered an address on China, while Rev. J. B. Mullan, of Fergus, spoke upon missions.

The Theological Hall of Queen's University, Kingston, will be formally opened on Monday, November 2, at 8 p.m., in Convocation Hall. Prof. Glover will deliver the opening address—subject: "A Chapter of English Church History." Lectures in theology will commence on November 2.

A farewell service for the seven young men who are shortly to leave for China in connection with the China Inland Mission was held on Wednesday evening, the 21st October, in Queen Street East Presbyterian Church. Addresses were given by Mr. J. A. Steven, Mr. Frost and the missionaries themselves.

The annual thank-offering service of the Sunderland W.F.M.S. was held on a recent evening, when an address was delivered by Rev. J. McD. Duncan, Woodville; collection $36.10. At the service preparatory to the communion at Sunderland, recently observed, nine new names were added to the roll.

The Presbyterians of Berkeley recently celebrated their Harvest Home in the usual way. These took part in the programme: Rev. Messrs. J. F. McLaren, M. M. Goldberg, Hunter, and Thompson; Messrs. R. Jamieson, J. Caesar, J. W. Whitby and Beatty; Mrs. Caesar, Miss Moore and Master Atkins.

At the recent communion in Guthrie Church, Alvinston, twelve were received into the Church—four by certificate, four came into full communion on profession of faith, and some professing their faith in Jesus were baptized. The collections, which were for the Home Mission and Augmentation Funds, amounted to $78.

The First Church of Chatham held its annual supper last week. Fully five hundred people were entertained. A very effective programme was supplied by Revs. R. McCosh, Dr. Battisby, E. M. Baker; Mrs. Cooper; Miss Taylor and Ross; and Messrs. R. Marcotte, H. Anderson and W. C. Phillimore.

Rev. D. Strachan, of Hespeler, preached the anniversary sermons at Georgetown on Sunday week, followed by an effective lecture on Monday evening. Beautiful solos were sung on each occasion by Mrs. F. Rev. W. J. Clark, of London, is evidently not a very firm believer in the methods of modern evangelists. During a recent sermon bearing upon this point he said that in the present day, if the churches did their work properly there would be no necessity for the evangelist. He also expressed doubt whether the work of evangelists was lasting and durable.

Two ministers of the same name—Rev. W. A. McKay, D.D., of Woodstock, and Rev. A. McKay, of Lucknow—preached the anniversary sermons at Whitechurch on a late Sabbath. Both were very successful. A sociable was held on the following evening. Rev. Messrs. Whaley, Leach, and Dr. McKay gave addresses; G. W. Clive, of Wingham, supplied some music; and Mr. Sam Gracey read two selections.

An occasion of much interest to the ladies of St. Andrew's Church, Lindsay, was the thank-offering meeting of their Auxiliary. Mrs. Robt. Ross, the president, presided. Two little girls from the Junior Mission Band, Miss Mabel Paton and Miss Cora Burling, read original papers on "Giving," followed by a duet from Misses Gross and Skinner. Mrs. John Harvie, of Toronto, delivered an able address on her experiences in the North-West.

A THOUGHT THAT KILLED A MAN!

HE thought that he could trifle with disease. He was run down in health, felt tired and worn out, complained of dizziness, biliousness, backaches and headaches. His liver and kidneys were out of order. He thought to get well by dosing himself with cheap remedies. And then came the ending. He fell a victim to Bright's disease! The money he ought to have invested in a safe, reliable remedy went for a tombstone.

Warrant's Safe Cure

is the only standard remedy in the world for kidney and liver complaints. It is the only remedy which physicians universally prescribe. It is the only remedy that is backed by the testimony of thousands whom it has relieved and cured.

THERE IS NOTHING ELSE THAT CAN TAKE ITS PLACE

At the last meeting of the Sarnia Presbytery, the mission fields of Marthaville and Inwood were linked into one field, and received permission to settle an ordained missionary. The charge promises to become a strong one. A missionary will be chosen at an early date. Rev. C. H. Daly, of Oil Springs, was appointed Moderator of the new charge.

A purely Scottish concert was given in Knox Church, London, last week. Those taking part were Mrs. Gauld, the Misses Gilmour, McArthur, Bremner, and Templeton, and Messrs. St. George, R. Jex, W. Jex, J. W. McInosh, and W. Fairbairn. Mr. Fred Evans was the accompanist. The Rev. J. G. Stuart presided and introduced the numbers in the best Scotch at his command. After the programme, the audience adjourned to the upper room, where refreshments were served and enjoyed by all.

The annual thank-offering meeting of the Bothwell Auxiliary of the W.F.M. Society was held on the evening of Friday the 9th October. The President, Mrs. Davidson, presided and gave a short and interesting address on "The Progress of the W.F.M. Society since its Organization Twenty Years Ago." Mrs. Zimmerman, of Petrolia, who had spent some years in Africa, gave a most interesting address on "The Women of Algeria." The meeting was largely attended and the addresses and also the music furnished by the church choir were much appreciated. The offerings amounted to $20.

Exhaustion

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

Overworked men and women, the nervous, weak and debilitated, will find in the Acid Phosphate a most agreeable, grateful and harmless stimulant, giving renewed strength and vigor to the entire system.

Dr. Edwin F. Voss, Portland, Me., says "I have used it in my own case when suffering from nervous exhaustion, with gratifying results. I have prescribed it for many of the various forms of nervous debility, and it has never failed to do good."
