Union Station, Toronto.—G. Healey, Baggage Master, has resigned.

A Toronto daily paper stated on Sep. 28, that F. H. McGuigan was about to retire from the position of Manager of Transportation, Maintenance and Construction, to confine himself to his executive duties as Fourth

Vice-President G.T.R. Mr. McGuigan has not held the title of Manager since he became Fourth Vice-President, but has remained in charge of operating, maintenance and construction. The same report stated that the operating, maintenance and construction would be placed under W. G. Brownlee, at present Superintendent of the Middle Division at Toronto, who would be succeeded by U. E. Gillen, now Assistant Superintendent at Londor. On Sept. 29, we were officially advised that the statements made by the Toronto daily paper were incorrect.
