

ired igs,

> t m ne-

> uas len

tav

11-

all

ten

is

ıth:

ı٠٠

111

11-

Ċ¢

REVERENCE FOR THE POOR.

GENERAL INTENTION FOR APRIL.

Named by the Cardinal Protector and blessed by the Pope for all the Associates.

HERE are different classes of poor that have claim on our reverence and respect. are poor beggars who hold out their hand in appeal to the charity of the public. are poor monks and religious who have voluntarily tripped themselves by vow of all worldly possessions to bllow more perfectly the example of Christ and the counsels of the Gospel. By the poor in a still wider ense we may understand all who are not rich, all who. whether by their own choice or fault or by force of circumsances of which Divine Providence clone holds control. are subject in some degree to privation and want. It is the Inguage of Christ Himself in the Gospel that warrants us thus dividing mankind at large in two great classes -he rich and the poor. The same language as well as the caching of the Catholic Church tells us most emphatcally that we are to prefer the poor, that we are to reverace, respect and love their state more than that of the ich.