

ment of co-operation with the American Baptist Missionary Union. Within a few months they have been making special effort to arouse interest in their Liberia work, one of their missionaries—the Rev. Mr. Johnson—having spoken in many places in this country, and then gone to England to secure funds there.

—The Christian (Disciple) Church contributed for foreign missions last year $70,321, of which but $1751 were from bequests. In all, 1338 churches contributed, from 1468 Sunday-schools came offerings to the amount of $21,907, and from 193 societies of Christian Endeavor, $1830.

—The fiftieth anniversary of the arrival of Father Heyer at Guntur, India, was celebrated in many Lutheran Sunday-schools during the year 1892. About 400 connected with the General Synod contributed a jubilee offering for foreign missions amounting to $5,562. To this amount is also to be added several thousand dollars contributed for the support of students, numerous helpers in gospel work, the erection of prayer houses, and similar mission work.

—The M. E. Church, South, began work among the Indians as far back as 1823, and has expended upon them in all upward of $400,000. In the Indian Territory last year they could report 90 missionaries and a membership of over 12,000. This same church has a Mexican mission which embraces three conferences, and stretches westward to the Pacific and southward to the State of Michoacan. About 80 native preachers are in service, and over 5000 native members are enrolled as communicants.

—The Presbyterian Church is bestirring itself to take in hand the matter of doing its share toward Christianizing and Americanizing the millions of German immigrants, bearing in mind what a German once said: "Unless the Americans take care of the Germans, the Germans will take care of the Americans."

—The Presbyterian Church, South, has a synod in and about Arizona whose area is greater than 5 States the size of Pennsylvania. On the roll are 26 ministers, 17 Spanish helpers, and 42 churches with a membership of 1360. Several of the churches are Spanish and 1 is Indian.

—The Cumberland Presbyterian exclaims: "Just think of 170,000 members and $20,000 given to home missions last year! Or, in other words, we gave eight and one half cents per member to establish our Lord's cause where the Gospel is needed in this land." And the call goes out for $25,000 in 1893 for foreign missions.

—From Philadelphia, sent forth by the United Presbyterian Church on November 2d, a party of 7 missionaries sailed en route for Egypt; 2 men with their wives and 3 unmarried women. Two were returning to their work, and 5 were new to the work.

—"Liberalism," somehow, does not appear to be conducive to evangelistic zeal. For the other day, at a gathering of Boston Unitarians, by one of their own number it was stated as a fact that the 15 Congregational churches of the city of Worcester give more in a year for missionary purposes than all the 450 Unitarian societies in the country.

DOMINION OF CANADA.

—Many years ago there was a refuge for lepers at Tracadia, on an island in the mouth of the St. Lawrence. A patient who had been confined there made his escape and sought shelter in a hospital in Montreal. Before his death he told one of the sisters the horrible condition of this abode. He said they were fastened up in it, and then left entirely to themselves, their food being thrown over a high wall, while the ground within was knee deep with mire and filth. The Superior applied for leave to send some of the sisters to take charge of this place. As soon as she received it she called together the sisters under her care, told them the story, and asked
