

SETTLED BY THE RULE OF THREE!

A GREAT STATESMAN SQUELCHES "COMMERCIAL UNION."

"It's as I said to an old farmer the other day. 'Commercial Union,' says I, 'would be all right but for three things: first, England won't have it; second, the United States won't have it; and third, Canada won't have it.'"—Sir John in recent interview.