ST. BRIDGET. REV. ABRAM J. RYAN.

Sweet Heaven's smile Gleamed o'er the Isle That gems the dream sea— One far gone day, And flashed its ray— More than a thousand years away, Pure Bridget, over thee.

White as the snow That falls below To earth on Christmas night, Thy pure face shone
On every one;
For Christ's sweet grace thy heart had won
To make thy birth-land bright.

cloud hangs o'er

A Cloud Binks of the Thy Erin's shore—
Thy Erin's shore—
Ah! God, 'twas always so—
Ah! Virg'in fair
Thy Heaven prayer
Will help thy people in their care
And save them from their wos.

Thou art in light; Thou art in light;
They are in night;
Thou hast a crown—they a chain;
The very sod,
Made theirs by God,
Is still by tyrants' footsleps itrod;
They pray—but all in vain.

Thou, near Christ's throne,
Dost hear the moan
Of all their hearts that grieve,
Ah! Virgin sweet,
Kneel at His feet
Where angels' hymns thy prayer shall greet
And pray for them this Eve.

THE LAND BILL

Important Declaration of the Archbishops and Bishops

The following is the full text of the Dec'aration of the Catholic Hierarchy of Ireland on the Land Bill. The Document, we understand, has been forwarded to the Prime

" We the Archbishops and Bishops of Ireland, having, individually and in general meeting, given to the Government Land Bill. now before Parliament, our most careful consideration. deem it our duty to declare, that, whilst we recognize in its leading principles an honest and statesmanlike purpose of settling, on a solid and equitable basis, the relations of landlord and tenant in Ireland, we are convinced, that to effect a permanent and satisfactory settlement of the Land Question, the following alterations in the details of the Bill are necessary :-

"1. That perpetuity of tenure should be granted not alone to all ' present tenants,' as in the Bill, but to future tenants also.

"2. That tenants holding under-leases made since the passing of the Land Act of 1870 should have the right to submit them for revision to the Court, both as to amount of rent and other conditions.

"3. That the holders of evisting leases should, on the expiration of such leases, become entitled to the protection given by the Bill to 'present tenants.'

"We are convinced that without the above amendments the Act will not give tenants that sense of security, which of all conditions is the most necessary, not only for the peace and contentment, but for the agricultural improvement and general prosperity of the country. Without ecurity of tenure, the tenant will give either labour nor capital to the soil; he Ill remain poor and discontented. On the ter hand, a secure tenure, with the other | effected a permanent cure." ps provided in the Bill, will develop inry and enterprise; supply lucrative iesithful employment to the youth of d generally as well as to the labourass; and will distribute over the the population now so inconvenrowded in the poorest and most res portions of the island.

lands in Ireland, as well as for arterial drainage, should be added to the Land Bill, and such scheme to be carried out by the Government itself. " 16. That no settlement of the Land Question can be deemed satisfactory, or complete, without an adequate provision being made therein for the improvement of the condition of our agricultural labourers:

117. That the final decision of Land cases. with all the other powers vested by the Bill in the Land Commission, should not be given to a single Commissioner, much less to an Assistant Commissioner.

"18. That with a view to conciliate public confidence in the County Courts, and to secure the equitable administration of the Act, two Assessors, to be chosen by County Electors, should be associated with the County Court Judge, and have co-ordinate jurisdiction with him, for the decision of land cases."

"We need not add that, in common with the whole tenant class of Ireland, we believe that the value of the Act and of the amendments we recommend will very largely, if not entirely, depend on the selection of the Commissioners, and on the establishment of suitable and permanent rules for the discharge of their duties. † DANIEL M'GETTIGAN, Archbishop of Armagh, Chairman.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of THE POST and TRUE WITNESS: Sis,-In reply to your recent request I herewith enclose the sum of one dollar and fifty cents, together with the heartfelt wish that your course of action is being approved of by every subscriber of the TRUE WITNESS, in the columns of which your bold and outspoken views upon matters pertaining to Ireland cannot but command the admiration and sapction of every true-born Irishman. As well should these views be the means of inducing those Irishmen who are not as yet subscribers to come forward and have their names placed upon the list as an indication of their willingness to support a journal devoted to their interests, and which sacrifices so much space, and inpurs so many liabilities and censures of the enemies of their country. ART SALE. Paris, May 7.—The sale of the Hartmann collection, 21 pictures and drawings, by Theodore Rousseau and J. B. Millet, fetched nearly $170,000. The principal dealers of Paris and New York were represented. M. Turquet, the Secretary of Fine Arts, purchased for the Louvre for $26,000, Rousseau's superb picture, "Un Marais Dans Des Landes." Loud cheers greeted the announcement of its destination. Millet's well known picture, "The Grafter," brought $26,000. Mr. W.H. Vanderbilt bought Millet's "Water Carrior" for $15,600. The Beaurnoville collection is now on exhibition previous to sale.

WEEKLY REVIEW - WHOLESALE MARKETS.

The manufacturing and wholesale trade generally is in a healthy condition, and local transportation companies have plenty of work on hand, and are giving employment | THE CITY RETAIL MARKETS-MAY 10. to many who would otherwise be idle. Shippers of through freight, however, are dispondent, as exports of grain from this continent are dwindling down to jusignificant proportions, and what grain is offering is taken at ruinously low rates by New York steamers whose passenger lists for Europe are filled for months ahead. The crop prospects in the States are not so encouraging as at this season last year, and imports of gold to New York from Europe have ceased. It would appear that while in Cauada the business boom" is just upon us the United States have already discounted their "boom" to some extent, and in the interval which must elapse before the condition of the crops is satisfactorily ascertained, a decided lull may safely be anticipated.

DRUGS AND CHEMICALS.—Business continues fairly active and there is a good demand for general goods at steady prices. CRUELTY. Some horses like some people occupy higher position "socially" than others of their species. The contrast between the position of a well-ied, well-groomed, comfortably-housed and carefully-driven carriage horse, who resides in the West End of the city, and the poorly-fed, half-starved, over-driven mag, who lives in an over-crowded neighborhood, is as marked as is the contrast of the millionaire and the pauper. But as troubles and pains are not unfrequently the lot of millionaires as well as paupers, so the carriage and saddle horse get their share of pain or abuse as well as the miserable looking mag of low degree.

The cruelty to animals complained of is the galloping of saddle horses on hard macadamized roads. The pain thus caused to horses with cornsor tender feet is very great. The remedy for this is what this advertisement is aiming al, which is to ask the Corporation to provide what all cities of this size should have, namely, a Public Hiding Ground, or what is sometimes called, "The Gallop."

As previously stated, the proper place for a Public Hiding Ground is the land now lying waste on the south side of Sherbrooke street, from St. Mark street to Cote St. Antoine Tollgate. The cost to put the ground iz proper order would be triffing. Publishers and Bookseller 275 NOTRE DAME STREET. MONTREAL.
